

Daniella Jimenez

4000 Tunlaw Rd NW, 20007, Washington, D.C. · dj9419a@student.american.edu · 786-520-9668

EDUCATION

American University, School of Communications, Washington, DC

May 2024

Bachelor's of Arts in Journalism

Minor: International Studies

Honors: GPA: 3.78/4.0, Dean's List for Spring and Fall 2022-2023

AWARDS

2023 American University School of Communication's Outstanding Student Award

2022 American News Women's Club Scholarship Winner with recipient Bob Woodward

2022 Ron Sutton Visual Literacy Award

2020 Nominee for Silver Knights Journalism Award

June 2020

Reporting Fellow, Investigative Reporting Workshop, Washington, DC

May 2023-Present

- Performed research through LexisNexis, source reporting, excel spreadsheets, and other data analysis tasks
- Collaborated on investigative pieces with experienced reporters and editors from The Washington Post
- Conducted in-depth research on various topics, including government and corporate accountability, the environment, health, national security, and the economy
- Maintained high standards of accuracy, integrity, and objectivity in all research and reporting activities.

Editorial Intern, CNBC DC Bureau, Washington, DC

January 2023-Present

- Working directly with CNBC reporters, anchors, producers, editors and photographers
- Assisting producers at live locations across Washington, DC including Capitol Hill and the White House
- Working alongside the camera crew doing stakeouts outside of Capitol Hill and the White House
- Reporting and researching court cases about media law issues
- Pitching and reporting my own stories for CNBC.com and CNBC Make It.com
- Monitoring and transcribing live events

President, NAHJ Chapter, American University

January 2023-Present

- Started up the chapter by recruiting 15 new members and retain existing members
- Carrying out requirements to maintain chapter certification, including submitting the annual report
- Being acquainted with most chapter members and working to meet their needs within the NAHJ mission.
- Keeping members informed of chapter activities through emails, social media.

News Intern, Telemundo 44 & NBC4, Washington, DC

August 2022-December 2022

- Participate in daily editorial process: planning, researching, newsgathering, logging, writing and editing with programs like Dalet Galaxy, LMX, and Adobe Premiere Pro
- Accompany reporters and crews on stories to learn editorial and technical aspects of news gathering
- Investigated viewers calls and tips and assisted on the assignment desk
- Shadow producers and assignment editors and participated in studio anchor sessions
- Produce individual news stories for demo reels and online

Managing Editor, El Águila/The Eagle, American University

May 2022-Present

- Hired and supervised a team of 20 Spanish copy editors and writers across News, Life and Opinion sections
- Executed a social media presence for recruiting and retaining about 15 new talents
- Met with staffers weekly to pitch ideas for diversifying coverage within the section and meet with other Managing Editors to integrate and collaborate on pitches for on-campus and off-campus articles
- Edit articles weekly and oversee following AP Style Guide rules

Intern, Girls Who Code, Miami, Florida

June 2019-August 2019

- Attend the Summer Immersion Program teaching girls and non-binary students the computer science skills they need to make an impact on their community while preparing for a career in tech.
- Partnered with Ernst and Young Co., and participated in skill-building workshops including Python, CSS, and HTML.
- Participated in team-building activities and skills to excel in creating a website that would encourage Miami Latino youth to vote within the Miami-Dade county.

SKILLS

- Computer: Microsoft Office, iNews, Stratus, LexisNexis, Microsoft Excel, Adobe InDesign, Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Photoshop, SQL Database, Python, CSS, HTML, and JavaScript
- Language: Fluent in English, Spanish and French