

We are a well-established General Contractor offering an opportunity for employment as a Field Superintendent to a person with the following characteristics and skills:

- Strong commitment to excellence and integrity
- Leadership ability and experience
- Highly skilled in construction means and methods
- Team player – able to work closely with project managers and estimators
- Positive attitude – even under challenging or difficult situations
- Excellent communication skills – both verbal and written
- Exercises discretion and independent judgment in making decisions
- Capable of planning, and anticipating a variety of possible future conditions, so as to keep a project on schedule and minimize problems
- Able to maintain positive working relationships with team members, field personnel, subcontractors and clients
- Basic computer skills and willingness to learn
- Minimum of 10 years of experience with a general contractor

We offer:

- Competitive wages (DOE)
- Vehicle allowance
- Employer-paid health insurance
- Paid vacations and personal time off
- Seven paid holidays

Please e-mail your resume to rkratz@reddenconstruction or fax it to 602-340-9403.