But be doers of the word,
and not merely hearers who deceive themselves.
James 1:22

The sexton of a church was a good and pious man. Since he had served long and well, was trusted and liked, he was allowed considerable freedom in posting announcements on the outside bulletin board. Occasionally he would supplement them with short spiritual sayings, such as "Praise the Lord" or "God is Love" or "Prayer changes things," etc.

When the pastor, Reverend Smith, became ill, the sexton assumed the task of providing day-to-day condition reports, which were appreciated by the congregation. One day this appeared on the bulletin board:

GOD IS GOOD
REVEREND SMITH IS BETTER

That mind-boggling pronouncement needs little comment, except to say that sometimes by assuming arrogant attitudes, careless talk, and a selfish manner of living, we fall into the trap of thinking that we are "better than God." To say that is, of course, absurd. Nevertheless, when we choose our own way, rather than God's, we are proclaiming, in effect, that we know more than God, that our way is better.

The epistle writer James challenges his readers to consider whether they are seeking to live by God's word or are deceiving themselves by trying to live with a consciousness divided between God's way and the world's way. He calls his readers from doublemindedness to the purity of heart which is to will one thing: God's way.

James' challenge is the very same one that lies at the heart of Lent, the season of self-examination and self-denial that begins on Ash Wednesday (February 18th). So, let us consider, carefully and prayerfully, whose way we have been following – our own or God's.

BOOK CORNER

By Pastor Eileen

Alexander McCall Smith is best known for his beloved and bestselling No. 1 Ladies' Detective Agency series, featuring Mma Precious Ramotswe, Botswana's first female private investigator, known for its gentle humor and focus on community issues, but he's also famous for other series like 44 Scotland Street, Corduroy Mansions, Isabel Dalhousie/Sunday Philosophy Club, and a vast range of children's books, academic works, and standalone novels.

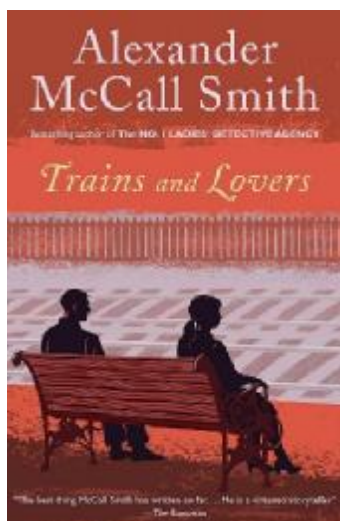

The following two novels are uplifting and heart-warming – perfect for cold, dark winter days.

A copy of each can be found on the lending book shelves in the church office. can be found on the lending book shelves in the church office.

La's Orchestra Saves the World

When Lavender – La to her friends – moves to the Suffolk countryside, it's not just to escape the London Blitz but also to flee the wreckage of a disastrous marriage. But as she starts to become a part of the community, she detects a sense of isolation. Her deep love of music and her desire to bring people together inspire her to start an orchestra. Little did she know that through this orchestra she would not only give hope and courage to the people of the community, but also that she would meet a man, Feliks, a shy upright Pole, who would change her life forever.

Trains and Lovers

As they journey by rail from Edinburgh to London, four strangers pass the time by sharing tales of travel that have changed their lives: the workplace romance that grows out of an incongruity in an eighteenth-century painting; the long, love-filled marriage that blooms at a whistle stop in the remote Australian Outback; the surprising dinner date that results from a simple mistake; and the youthful crush that was never fulfilled.

Report on the TUMC Church Archives!

Establishing an archives in the church takes time and the efforts of the church membership. Establishing an archives can be called -- a Ministry of Memory

Why this project? To be an advocate for the archives and history of the church.

- To locate and identify the records in various formats.
- To protect and preserve the records.
- To make the records easily accessible for reference and research.
- To enable the practice of records management for the future.

At the present time:

Archival boxes for storage of the records were ordered and delivered. Thanks to the Fox family for assembling!

Current work is on the Church bulletins and Church newsletters. Arlene Dezendorf has given wonderful assistance. I hope others in the Church will drop in to help out - even for an hour. There's plenty to do.

I am at the Church Office on Wednesdays from 1 PM to 3:30 PM. Please drop by and see what's going on!
