

"Guiding Light"

FRANKIE J. PERRY

Frankie J. Perry is a native of Durham, NC. She was educated in the Durham Public Schools and graduated from Hillside High School in 1964. She attended Bennett College in Greensboro, NC, the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill and completed 36 hours towards a Master Degree in Sociology from North Carolina Central University.

Frankie taught school in Nash County, North Carolina and was named "Teacher of the Year" in Science and Mathematics in 1970. She worked at the law firm of Pearson, Malone and DeJarmon. Later she worked for Central Carolina Bank (SunTrust Bank) and the National Laboratory for Higher Education where she wrote and had published the "Bibliography on Higher Education".

In 1973, she joined the Trust Department of Wachovia Bank, NA (Wells Fargo Bank) as a Trust Assistant. Upon her retirement in 2013, she retired as a Senior Vice President. She received several commendations during her employment and earned the distinction as a Certified Financial and Trust Advisor. She was awarded recognition in the top five for sales in the Bank.

In retirement, Frankie continues to serve clients in Wealth Management through intergenerational family relationships. She has always been connected to the community and Church through her membership in several professional organizations to provide mentorship and developmental strategies to many students.

Topic: Powers of Attorney, Healthcare Powers of Attorney, Advance Directives, Wills and Trusts.

“Real Estate Law”

Attorney Daron D. Satterfield
Satterfield Law, PLLC

Attorney Satterfield is a 2002 graduate of North Carolina Central University School of Law. He formed Satterfield Law, PLLC with a desire to provide people with quality legal representation that is both accessible and affordable. His desire to help others comes from his faith in God. Every case, like every client, is unique. For each and every client that Daron represents, he wants you to feel as if you are his only client.

Topic: Property Law, Wills, Estates

“Real Estate”

Moses Best

Real Estate Agent

Moses is a native of Fayetteville, NC. Graduated from North Carolina Central University in 1979 with a Business Administration degree and concentration in Marketing. Has lived in Durham since 1983. He started his real estate career in 1989 with Century 21 Park West in Durham. Has worked in real estate general brokerage for over 25 years and new home sales as an onsite for a total of five years with MI Homes, DR Horton and KB Homes. Currently, employed with Fathom Realty. Over the years Moses has attended various workshops to keep abreast of the ever-evolving real estate market and rule changes and etc. On August of 2002, Moses graduated from the Graduate Realtor Institute. The Graduate Realtor Institute is a national real estate organization that provides in-depth knowledge on technical subjects as well as fundamentals of real estate.

Topic: evaluation of property by realtors and buyers, reverse mortgages: pros and cons, and talking to your children/relatives about when to move