Church's Theme: "Being a Fruitful Branch in the Vine of Christ"

From The Pastor's Desk

"A Church May Look Upon Itself As A Means of Meeting Community Needs"

Rev. Dr. Percy R. Chase

If it were stated that a church has higher concerns than the needs of the community, this statement must be sustained. The needs of a community might be arranged on a scale of importance. Which needs are highest? Which ones are lower?

Opinions do vary; yet, the highest needs are those having to do with the souls of men finding expression in salvation from sin, moral enlightenment, spiritual growth, measure of faith, and wholeness of personality. Lower needs may be cultural, social, civic, and material. At times, a lower need may stand out as immediately imperative; yet, again the church, moral, and spiritual needs come first.

Sound strategy for meeting higher needs will give the lower needs their necessary supply. For the promise of Jesus states, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all other things shall be added unto you."
