

Barbara Corcillo

Cellist Barbara Corcillo grew up in New York, received her Bachelor and Master of Music degrees at the Juilliard School, and now lives, performs, and teaches in the South Florida area. She manages her own chamber ensemble, the Encore Chamber Players, and performs with them all over South Florida, the United States, and abroad.

Barbara is Assistant Principal Cellist with the The Symphonia of Boca Raton, and also performs regularly with the Atlantic Chamber Orchestra and Kravis Center Pops. She teaches privately and at many area schools, including Bak Middle School of the Arts, The Conservatory School, and in the Preparatory Department at Palm Beach Atlantic University. Many of her students attend the Dreyfoos School of the Arts, Conservatory School, and Bak Middle School of the Arts.

Barbara enjoys having a diverse career as a musician, performing as a soloist, chamber musician, and orchestra musician, as well as teaching students of all ages and at all levels.
