LITERARY CIRCLE MEETING

Join us for our meeting May 9, 2024 at 7 PM on Zoom (a week later than normal) to discuss James Michener's The Source. The novel is set in Jerusalem at an archeological dig site, and like all of Michener's work, it is monumental! Give yourself enough time to read it - you might want to start now.

MUSIC NOTES

Our closing hymn, "The King of love my shepherd is," a paraphrase of the 23rd Psalm, was written by Sir Henry Williams Baker. Born in London in 1821, his degree and holy orders were from Trinity College, Cambridge. In 1851 he was presented to the vicarage of Monkland. Sir Henry wrote and edited many church hymns and prayers, working for "Hymns Ancient and Modern" a publication often referenced in Music Notes. Although this hymn is paired with other melodies, our hymnal matched it with the traditional Irish melody 'St. Columba.' It is often sung at funerals, including that of Diana, Princess of Wales, in 1997.
