

AI Camp Terms and Conditions

Thank you for choosing our AI Camp! To ensure a fun, safe, and productive experience for all participants, please review the following terms and conditions.

1. Behavior

To maintain a safe and positive environment, we expect all participants to follow camp rules, which will be explained to each child upon arrival. In cases of misbehavior, we will speak directly with the child; if issues persist, parents will be notified. AI Camp has a zero-tolerance policy toward bullying of any form.

2. General Matters

By enrolling, you agree that minor interruptions may occasionally occur during camp activities. We will work to minimize disruptions to ensure a smooth experience. AI Camp reserves the right to deny entry to anyone posing a risk to other participants or to remove participants who violate camp rules. Fees for participants removed due to behavior issues are non-refundable.

3. Definitions

- “AI Camp” refers to all courses, services, and materials provided by AI Camp.
- “Course Materials” include all educational resources, printed or digital, used in the camp.
- “T&C” refers to these Terms and Conditions.

4. General Conditions of Use – Responsibilities of You and Your Child

- You and your child must act respectfully toward other participants and staff.
- Camp equipment may only be used as instructed, and participants must avoid activities that could harm others, property, or equipment.
- AI Camp is not liable for any personal injury or the loss or damage of personal belongings.
- Photography or recording of others is not allowed without prior consent.
- Parents are responsible for any damages caused by their child and may be charged for repair or replacement costs.

5. Orders and Acceptance

Upon receiving your registration and payment, we will confirm your reservation. Orders accepted through the AI Camp website are binding and enforceable under these T&Cs. By enrolling, you authorize us to process payments for camp fees. It is your responsibility to keep payment information up-to-date; if details change, please notify us to avoid service interruptions. Failure to maintain accurate payment information may result in suspension of registration.

6. Warranty

AI Camp courses are delivered with care and in accordance with industry standards. However, we do not guarantee specific learning outcomes or goals. Each participant is responsible for their success in meeting personal goals. We disclaim all implied warranties of suitability, including liability for any damages or injuries resulting from camp activities.

7. Cancellation Policy

If you need to cancel the course, please notify us at least three business days before the course start date. If a course cannot be rescheduled, a refund may be provided for the fees paid, but no additional liability will be assumed.

8. Payments

AI Camp reserves the right to adjust course fees at any time. Price changes will not affect already confirmed registrations. Course fees exclude applicable taxes, which will be added where required.

9. Intellectual Property

All course materials provided during the camp are the intellectual property of AI Camp and are for personal, non-commercial use only. Participants may not copy, distribute, or alter these materials without written permission. Any use of AI Camp's name, logo, or trademarks is prohibited without express consent.

10. Liability and Indemnity

Our total liability in connection with any claim is limited to the fees paid for the camp. We are not liable for indirect, incidental, or consequential damages, including lost data or profits. You agree to indemnify and hold AI Camp harmless from any claims resulting from your or your child's conduct.

11. Governing Law and Disputes

These terms are governed by the laws of South Australia. Any disputes will be resolved under the jurisdiction of South Australia. If any term within these T&Cs is found to be unenforceable, the validity of the remaining terms remains unaffected.
