

THE BOB MARTIN JAZZ TRIO

FEATURING THE GREAT AMERICAN SONG BOOK

Bob Martin and his trio present vocal and instrumental selections from Classic Jazz Repertoire and the Great American Song Book. Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, Rodgers & Hart, and many others arranged in the style of 1950's Jazz and Easy Listening.

Bob Martin, Vocals, Bass

Bob Martin attended Berklee College of music as a voice principal, recorded 3 CDs with NIPPON/Columbia as a vocalist with The Ritz and toured globally with that group.

He's a regular contributor to the Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, writing music for and performing on the show with Jimmy Fallon's barbershop group The Ragtime Gals.

His vocal arranging and singing can be also be heard in national radio spots for Progressive Insurance.

Bob Adams - Guitar

Bob Adams attended Berklee College of Music as a guitar principal, and his varied experience includes live shows at park concerts for thousands as well as intimate crowds in bars and parties.

He has appeared at Sunset Strip rock clubs, main stages at various festivals, and has opened for the likes of Bret Michaels, Grand Funk Railroad, and John Cafferty & The Beaver Brown Band.

Paul Davis - Drums

Paul Davis is a multi-instrumentalist, arranger, composer, engineer and producer.

He is comfortable playing keyboard, guitar, and bass, and he brings this broad musical perspective to the drums, playing with great sensitivity and panache.

He stays very busy recording drum/percussion tracks for hire both nationally and internationally from his home studio.
