UNBEARABLE LIGHTNESS

July 21 - August 15, 2026
OPENING RECEPTION:
Thursday, July 23, 2026 6-8 PM

Lightness is rarely as light as it appears. This summer, Pictor Gallery presents Unbearable Lightness, an invitational and members exhibition exploring the quiet labor beneath the surface of ease. The artists gathered here consider what it costs to appear unburdened: the softness that is demanded rather than chosen, the smile that conceals effort, the grace that is itself a form of work.

SEATTLE ART FAIR
ART FAIR / July 23 — 26
- website

Seattle Art Fair, a one-of-a-kind showcase for the vibrant arts community of the Pacific Northwest, and a leading destination for the best in modern and contemporary art returns to the Lumen Field Event Center for its 10th edition in July 2026. Discover the latest works by Michelle Y. Williams, Juan Escudero, Axelle Gosse, Peter Keizer and Sébastien Pochan, but also new artists like Rosa Galindo with her striking paintbrushes on plexiglass. Don't miss the opportunity to come and see them!

SATURDAY 25

Frank Paulin: Unseen Color, 1956 - 2008
June 25th, from 6 - 8 PM
 - website

Bruce Silverstein Gallery is pleased to present Frank Paulin: Unseen Color, 1956 - 2008, the gallery's fourth exhibition of work by Frank Paulin (1926–2016) and the first devoted exclusively to the artist's color photographs. Featuring twenty works spanning more than five decades, from 1956 to 2008, this exhibition reveals a body of work that remained virtually unknown during the artist's lifetime. Shot on color film beginning in the mid-1950s, these photographs were not printed until late in the artist's career, making this presentation a unique opportunity to reconsider the history of early color street photography in America.
