Maya Brodsky, Three New Paintings

July 1st - August 14th, 2026

Lower level at 38 Walker Street

During July and August, the George Adams Gallery will present an exhibition of new oil paintings by Maya Brodsky. This, her second solo with the gallery, will feature three small-scale paintings: two relating to the birth of her son, continuing the theme of motherhood from her previous exhibition, and an intricately detailed view of a room seen through a window's lace curtain.

NEW LOCATION

Robert Mann Gallery is happy to announce the opening of its new location in Suite 4C within the West Chelsea Arts Building on West 26th Street. Currently on view, How She Sees: Redux. Referencing our original 2021 exhibition that featured black-and-white prints by early-twentieth century women photographers, this updated version highlights contemporary works made by several female artists that invite viewers into imaginative environments.
