- 9. The most common reason for a VR is the need for a DispCopy. To match the VR, it must have the same Unit, Company and RunNumber (FD Incident Number) as the DispCopy. Some calls will not need a DispCopy, i.e. blank calls, test calls, etc. They can be deleted using the Delete button on the toolbar.  Make certain you want to do this.

10. To confirm the need for a DispCopy, first determine Run# then Right-Click and select PCR Search. Make PCR status [Any] and enter Run# into Run Number: slot. OK.

11. On this example you see 2 patient's name. (First Name and Last Name)

12. This call had 2 patients, and the DispCopy was used on the Archived patient. The crew mistakenly created a NEW ePCR when they should have used ADD PATIENT. This VR will have to be printed to a .pdf and sent to me. We will have to attach it to the Archived call and then we will delete it.

13. Another reason could be a Unit mix up. This typically happens in a station with more than one unit. The crews change and move to a second unit without changing the Tablet. The 911 CAD sends the call to the correct Unit, but the Tablet is logged into with the wrong Unit. Crew then must use NEW PATIENT on the Tablet and do not receive a DispCopy.

14. If the crew enters the correct IncNumber into the Tablet and saves the NEW, the server thinks “the crew knows what unit they are on” and changes the Unit to the wrong Unit. The ePCR can be Archived, but it will not clear NFIRS. Crew must change Unit and let us know. We will have to update the ePCR server before it will clear NFIRS.

15. A reminder for the Crews. "If you get a call in your Pending that you are not assigned to or should not be yours, leave it in Pending and advise EMS."
16. Also, if you want to remove a call from your Pending make the RunNumber/Inc Number 1111111 or 9999999 and enter a name of "Delete Me". It must have both entries to be deleted.
Make certain there is no information that you need, including refusal signatures.
17. Make a list of calls that need input from us, describing what is needed.
We will work on them as a group and let you know of our progress.
