Hawaiian Kingdom Constitution of 2019

Preamble

Iehovah (God) hath made of one blood, all nations of living souls, to dwell on the earth in unity and blessedness. God has also bestowed certain rights alike on all people of all lands, free of desecration.

Some of these rights given to all people of correct deportment; are life, limb, liberty, freedom from oppression; the earnings of his hands and the productions of his mind, but not however, to those who act in violation of laws.

Atua (God's son) thru Atooi (light of God) is the light that the Hawaiian Kingdom has used to guide us to right measures and sustain us in our work. To lead us with true governance, God has given us Kamehameha I, founder of the Polynesian / Hawaiian Kingdom. To him, belonged all the land from one end of the Islands to the other, though it was not his own private property.

As stated in the Hawaiian Kingdom's Constitution of 1840, "the kingdom is permanently confirmed to Kamehameha III, and his heirs" The current consanguine heir of Kamehameha that is anointed and crowned is His Majesty Ali'i Nui Aleka Aipoalani (HM The King).

As the Sovereign of the Polynesian Kingdom of Atooi / Hawaiian Kingdom, HM The King has granted the clarification of the Constitution to reflect with the consistency and general spirit of God's Law for the people(s) of the Kingdom(s) and other First Nations of the World.

Declaration of Rights

ARTICLE 1.

No law shall be enacted which is at variance with the word of the Lord Jehovah (Iehovah), or at variance with the general spirit of His word. All laws of the Islands shall be in consistency with the general spirit of God's law.

ARTICLE 2.

All living souls of every religion shall be protected in worshiping Iehovah, and serving him, according to their own understanding, but no man shall be punished for neglect of God unless he injures his neighbor, of being evil on the Hawaiian Kingdom. All living souls are free to worship God according to the dictates for their own consciences; but this sacred privilege hereby secured, shall not be so construed as to justify acts of licentiousness or practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of his Kingdom.

ARTICLE 3.

All living souls may freely speak, write and publish their sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech, or of the press. The law shall give redress to every living soul who is injured by another without a fault of his own and shall protect all men conducting properly and shall punish all men who commit crime against the Kingdom or against individuals. No unequal law shall be passed for the benefit of one to the injury of another.

ARTICLE 4.

All living souls shall have the right, in an orderly and peaceable manner to assemble, without arms, to consult upon the common good; give instructions to their Legislative Representatives, for the redress of grievances.

ARTICLE 5.

The privilege of the writ of Habeas Corpus belongs to all living souls and shall not be suspended, unless by HM The King, when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety shall require its suspension.

ARTICLE 6.

The right of trial by jury, in all cases in which it has been heretofore used in his Kingdom, shall remain inviolate forever.

ARTICLE 7.

No person shall be subject to punishment for any offense, except on due and legal conviction thereof, in a court having jurisdiction of the case.

ARTICLE 8.

No person shall be held to answer for any crime or offense (except in cases of impeachment, or for offenses within the jurisdiction of a police or district justice, or in summary proceedings for contempt) unless upon indictment, fully and plainly describing such crime or offense; and in the trial of any person on the charge of any crime or offense, he shall have the right to meet the witnesses who are produced against him, face to face, to produce witnesses and proofs in his own favor; and by himself, or his counsel, at his election, to examine the witnesses produced by himself, and cross-examine those produced against him; and to be fully heard in his defense.

ARTICLE 9.

No person shall be required to answer again for an offense, for which he has been duly convicted, or of which he has been duly acquitted upon a good and sufficient indictment.

ARTICLE 10.

No person shall be compelled, in any criminal case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.

ARTICLE 11.

No person shall sit as judge or juror, in any case in which his relative is interested, either as plaintiff, or defendant, or in the issue of which the said judge or juror may have, either directly or through a relative, any pecuniary interest.

ARTICLE 12.

Slavery shall, under no circumstances whatever, be tolerated in the Hawaiian Islands: whenever a slave shall enter Hawaiian territory, he shall be free; no person who imports a slave, or slaves, into HM The King's dominions shall ever enjoy any civil or political rights in this realm; but involuntary servitude for the punishment of crime is allowable according to law.

ARTICLE 13.

Every person has the right to be secure from all unlawful/illegal searches and seizures of his person, his house, his papers, and effects; and no warrants shall issue, but on probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and describing the place to be searched, and the person or things to be seized.

ARTICLE 14.

His Majesty The King conducts His Government for the common good; for the protection, safety, prosperity and happiness of His people; and not for honor or private interest of any one person, family or class of people among His subjects. HM The King has absolute power. Therefore, in making laws for the nation, regard shall be had to the protection, interest and welfare not only HM The King, the Chiefs, and those of Royal lineage, but of all people alike.

ARTICLE 15.

Each member of society has a right to be protected in the enjoyment of his life, liberty and property, according to standing laws. He is obliged, consequently, to contribute his proportional share to the expense of his protection; to give his personal services, or an equivalent, when necessary; but no part of the property of any individual, can, with justice, be taken from him or applied to public uses without his own consent, or that of HM The King. And whenever the public exigencies require that the property of any individual should be appropriated to public uses, he shall receive a reasonable compensation.

ARTICLE 16.

No subsidy, impost, duties or tax of any description, shall be established or levied, nor any money drawn from the treasury under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the Legislature; provided that the Legislature shall make provision, in the annual bills of appropriation, for the emergency of war, invasion, or rebellion; and the Minister of Finance shall render a detailed account to the Legislature of any expenditure made under that provision. The treasury is to be established by the Privy Council as a separate budget of the Central Bank of Atooi.

ARTICLE 17.

All retrospective laws are unjust; unless amended by HM The King.

ARTICLE 18.

The Military shall always be subject to the laws of the land, and no soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by the Legislature or request of HM The King.

ARTICLE 19.

All elections by the people shall be by ballot.

ARTICLE 20.

Every elector shall be privileged from arrest on election days, during his attendance at election, and in going to and returning therefrom, except in cases of treason, felony, or breach of the peace.

ARTICLE 21.

No elector shall be so obliged to perform military duty on the day of election, as to prevent his voting, except in time of war or public danger.

Form Of Government

ARTICLE 22.

The Government of the Hawaiian Kingdom is that of a Constitutional Monarchy founded on the principles of Jehovah for the benefit of all living souls, under His Majesty Kamehameha III, his heirs, and successors.

ARTICLE 68.

The Legislature shall be the grand inquest of the Kingdom; and all impeachments made by them shall be heard and tried by the Privy Council.

SECTION VIII. THE LEGISLATIVE POWER

ARTICLE 69.

The Legislative Power of this Kingdom is solely vested in HM The King.

ARTICLE 70.

The Legislative Body shall assemble annually, for the purpose of seeking the welfare of the nation, in the first week in April, and at such other time, and in the place that HM The King may judge necessary. This Body shall be styled the Legislature of the Hawaiian Islands.

ARTICLE 71.

Power and authority are hereby given to said Legislature, from time to time, to propose all manner of wholesome laws, either with penalties or without, as they shall judge to be for the welfare of the nation, and for the necessary support and defense of good government; provided the same be not repugnant or contrary to this Constitution.

ARTICLE 72.

No bill or resolution, although it may have passed the Legislature, shall become a law, or have force as such, until it shall have been presented to HM The King, through HH The Kuhina Nui and the Privy Council, for the revisal, and if he approves thereof, he shall signify his approbation by signing the same. But if he has any objection to the passing of such bill or resolve, he shall return it with his objections in writing to that Legislature in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large into their journal, and no such bill shall be brought forward thereafter during the same session.

ARTICLE 73.

Each Legislature shall be the judge of the qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business: but a small number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as Legislature may provide.

ARTICLE 74.

The Legislature shall choose its own officers and determine the rules of its own proceedings that will be transparent with the approval of HH The Kuhina Nui and/or the Privy Council.

ARTICLE 75.

The Legislature shall have authority to punish by imprisonment, not exceeding thirty days, every person, not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the Legislature, by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence; or who during the time of its sitting, shall threaten harm to the body or estate of any of its members, for anything said or done in the Legislature, or who shall assault any of them therefore, or who shall assault or arrest any witness or other person ordered to attend the Legislature, in his way going or returning; or who shall rescue any person arrested by order of the Legislature.

ARTICLE 76.

The Legislature must punish its own members for disorderly behavior.

ARTICLE 77.

The Legislature shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and the yeas and nays of the members of the Legislature, on any question, shall, at the desire of all those present, be entered into the journal.

ARTICLE 78.

The Legislature shall always be accountable to HM The King and to the people who have elected them into the office.

ARTICLE 79.

The Members of the Legislature shall receive, for their services a compensation to be ascertained by law and paid out of the treasury, but no increase of compensation shall take effect during the year in which it shall have been made; and no law shall be passed, increasing the compensation of said members beyond the sum agreed upon by the Privy Counsel.

SECTION IX. THE JUDICIARY

ARTICLE 80.

The Judicial Power of the Kingdom shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and in such inferior courts as the Legislature may from time to time establish.

ARTICLE 81.

The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, appointed by HM The King, and two associate Justices, any of whom may hold their offices during good behavior, subject to removal upon impeachment; and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office. Provided, however, that any judge of the Supreme Court, or of any other Court of Record, may be removed from office for mental or physical inability by a resolution of two-thirds of the Legislature. The judge against whom the Legislature may be about to proceed, shall receive notice thereof, accompanied by a copy of the causes alleged for his/her removal, at least twenty days before the day on which the Legislature shall act thereon.

ARTICLE 82.

The Kingdom shall be developed, by law, into a convenient number of circuits, not less than four, nor exceeding eight, subject to alteration by the Legislature, from time to time, as the public good may require; for each of which one or more Circuit Judges, not exceeding three, however, shall be appointed to hold their offices during good behavior, subject to removal upon impeachment.

ARTICLE 83.

The Judicial power shall extend to all cases in Law and Equity, arising under the constitution, any law of this Kingdom, and treaties made, or which shall be made under their authority; to all cases affecting Ambassadors, other public ministers and Consuls, and to all cases of Admiralty and maritime jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 84.

The Judicial power shall be divided among the Supreme Court and the several inferior courts of the Kingdom in such manner as the Legislature may from time to time indicate.

ARTICLE 85.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall be in all cases of impeachment, unless when impeached himself; and exercise such jurisdiction in equity or other cases as the law may confer upon him, his decisions being subject, however, to the revision of the Supreme Court, on appeal.

ARTICLE 86.

The decisions of the Supreme Court, when made by most of the Justices thereof, shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

ARTICLE 87.

HM The King, His Ministers, the Governors, and the Legislature shall have authority to require the opinions of the Justices of the Supreme Court, upon important questions of law, and upon solemn occasions.

ARTICLE 88.

HM The King, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, appoints the Justices of the Supreme Court, and all other Judges of Courts of Record; their salaries are fixed by law.

ARTICLE 89.

The Governors, by and with the advice of the Justices of the Supreme Court, shall appoint the District Justices of their respective islands.

ARTICLE 90.

In order that the people may not suffer from long continuance in place of any District Justice, who shall fail of discharging the important duties of his office with ability and fidelity, all commissions of District Justices shall expire and become void in the term of two years from their respective dates; and upon the expiration of any commission the same shall be renewed, or another person appointed, as shall most conduce to the well-being of the Kingdom. Provided always, that District justices shall be subject to removal at any time by the Circuit Court of their respective islands, for causes particularly assigned by the Judges of said Court in rendering their judgment. But no District Justice shall be removed until he/she shall have notice of the charges made against him/her and an opportunity of being heard in his/her defense.

ARTICLE 91.

No Judge or Magistrate can sit alone on an appeal or new trial, in any case on which he may have given a previous judgment.

ARTICLE 92.

It shall be the duty of the Chief Justice to make an annual report, through the Minister of the Interior, to the Legislature, of the state of the Judiciary of the Kingdom in all its branches.

ARTICLE 93.

HM The King, after approving this Constitution, shall take the following oath: I solemnly Swear, in the presence of Almighty God, to maintain the Constitution of the Kingdom whole and inviolate, and to govern in conformity with that and the laws.

ARTICLE 94.

HH The Kuhina Nui shall take the same oath; and when exercising the Executive Power, during a minority, she shall take the following oath: "I solemnly swear, in the presence of Almighty God, to preserve the rights of the Heir to the Crown, and the Constitution whole and inviolate, and to govern in conformity with that and the law".

ARTICLE 95.

Every member of the Customary Chiefs Council shall take the following oath:

I solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God, that I will loyally support the Constitution and Laws of the Hawaiian Islands, and conscientiously and impartially discharge my duty as a member of this House.
