

Fellowship with Our All-Knowing God

It's overwhelming to realize that as we begin our relationship with God through Jesus Christ, we start to understand God's omniscience. He knows our needs better than we do and never condemns us; instead, He works to strengthen our faith by granting blessings through grace and mercy. Psalm 139:2,4: "You know when I sit and when I rise; You perceive my thoughts from afar. Before a word is on my tongue you, LORD, know it completely." God's all-knowing nature surpasses human understanding; He possesses complete and perfect knowledge of everything. His omniscience means we can never hide from Him; He is always present in our lives.

Jeremiah 23:24: "Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?" declares the LORD. "Do not I fill heaven and earth?" declares the LORD. Life brings uncertainty, but we can trust in our God, who remains steadfast in His goodness and promises. Psalm 147:5: "Great is our Lord and mighty in power; His understanding has no limit." Since God knows the end from the beginning, it's understandable to wonder why our Almighty God allows certain events. It's a valid question. Isaiah 55:8: "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways," declares the LORD. With God's omniscience, He perceives everything in its entirety, whereas we can only catch a fleeting moment. Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight." Our Heavenly Father knows us deeply, understands everything about us, and loves us unconditionally. His love and omniscience are both limitless, so He can never know us any better or love us any less. He never misunderstands; no hidden secrets in our lives can stop His love for us. 2 Timothy 2:19: "The Lord knows those who are His." God already knows all our flaws, and no concealed weaknesses in our character can be revealed to Him to change His attitude toward us. Have you considered the importance of having a personal Savior from whom nothing is concealed? We can go to Him repeatedly, seeking His counsel, confessing our sins, embracing His promises, and singing His praises. Remember, regarding all our flaws, sins, imperfections, and shame, the Lord truly doesn't see those anymore when we are in Christ. He cleanses us from our sins and makes us whiter than snow. Although He knows all we have done in disobedience and foolishness, He still accepts and loves us deeply. He has declared us righteous through the blood of Jesus Christ, enabling us to stand holy in His sight. This is why we can confidently approach His throne and enjoy a personal fellowship with our loving Heavenly Father, an all-knowing God, bringing Him all our needs in prayer, trusting Him during times of trouble and suffering, and rejoicing in the blessings He grants us.
