

We're Sharing Love

As long as this old world continues to spin
You can have my heart and all I can give Because I am all in

When I close my eyes you are all that I see
This world of love was meant for you and me

My wife, I love you in ways
I cannot understand
The thought of losing you
Its an emotion I cannot stand

We share something special
And we know it is love
God is smiling down on us from heaven above

Like the sweet sounds of a dove
We're sharing love
We're sharing love

Some things are sacred
Nothing happens by chance
Like when we met
And it turned into romance

You changed my world
My love, you changed my life
Especially on that day you
Became my wife

Like the sweet songs that angels sing
I made my pledge of promise to you
With a ring

Repeat Chorus

Art Adkins (BMI)
©2026