Note: No addresses or emails are made public. Only the CEO views this information in order to complete their duties. If the artist is under 18 years of age, the legal guardian needs to consent for The Blue Hand Group to share the young persons socials, we recommend creating professional account that both parties have access to.

Check here to receive our charities newsletter that comes out every three months. You will be featured in it so might be nice to get a copy to show off to your friends and loved ones.

Artist Contribution Requirements, Agreement, Release and Waiver

Requirements

1. Create Your Own Original Piece

It is important to remember that your art must be in the highest resolution possible to achieve the best quality print possible. Please do not submit a piece that is clearly inspired by another artwork. As a very small charity, we do not have the capacity to battle a Copyright lawsuit. So please, trust in yourself and your own unique style, because we do. We recommend providing vector files as an additional option. Designs that are random brushes, splatters, and or textures with no focused subject matter or design concept are not accepted. Please design your artwork with an invisible frame around it, one that fits on the backs or fronts of shirts, totes, and other products. Do not include any vulgar or prejudiced phrases or words. Do not include any illegal items.

Colour Mode: RGB, 8-bit

File Types: JPGs, TIFFs, AI, and EPS.

Resolution: 150 DPI

Sizing: 42" x 56"

Positioning of Design: Consider where your design will be placed on products.

Absolutely no designs over seams.

Tax: Talk with your tax agent about covering any costs and time spent on the design(s) as Marketing Expenses or other business expenses.

Note: Do not forget that the resolution depends on your platform. If you are designing a vector (Illustrator), then resolution does not apply. Just make sure to expand your strokes and text.

1. Sending Your Design

Create a zip file and or google drive folder and invite/send it to info@thebluehandgroup.org Please include your socials and any websites you wish to be tagged/featured on the website alongside your designs so we can celebrate your generous contribution. If you have not already emailed us a signed copy of this document then please add the to your document submission email.

1. Spread the Word of Your Generosity

Let friends, family, and fans know how kind and creatively generous you are to charity. Post on your socials and be sure to tag our Instagram or include our website link. @the.bluehand.group and www.thebluehandgroup.org

Agreement, Release, and Waiver

By submitting a design you, the Artist, are guaranteeing that you hold all rights to everything in it and that it does not contain any copyrighted material, including images/copy found on the internet, unless clearly marked as published under creative commons (cc) license.

By signing you are giving consent for The Blue Hand Group to have sole rights to the design and its reproduction. The Blue Hand Group has your consent to use this design(s) on promotional materials including but not limited to public/marketing materials and promotional products such as t-shirts, tote bags, and other items. Once a design has been submitted, you are waiving any right to seek remuneration or a percentage of any sums raised for the charity by selling items or advertising with your design(s). You and your kin wave the right to seek any sum.

Full credits will be given to you as the artist and be featured on our website, newsletter, and social media. This means that the webpage may pop up on SEO if someone searches your name or our charity. You can also include this on your CV if you so desire. If you have a studio location we can feature it in our Local Legends Map which features all the local businesses that contribute:
