

The Presents Program Guidelines, Waiver and Agreement

WELCOME,

Congratulations, you have been approved to receive benevolent support from The Blue Hand Group. Before you receive this support this document must be read and signed. This is to ensure that all recipients understand the rules and to protect our Charity from any potential harm. For instance if a recipient is found to be selling their Presents it could place our status with the ACNC and ATO in jeopardy, potentially cutting off vital support to others in genuine need. All personal information is stored securely and in accordance with state and national legislation, please scroll to the bottom of our About page to view Important Documents - Privacy Declaration, Management and Agreement:

RULES FOR PRESENTS

$100 Budget for Presents

- When you are selecting your items online be sure to take postage and currency conversion into account as The Blue Hand Group will not cover these costs or any additional fees.
- Each approved individual with a UIN can only receive access to the $100 Presents budget once a year.
- Only one approved person from an address is allowed to gain access to The Presents Program. This means that multiple people living in the same location can not receive this support.
- All presents selected are required to fulfill necessitous needs. This excludes jewelry, non-work-relevant clothing, make-up, alcohol, etc. If you feel there is an exception to be made you can contact us, however, it is likely to be rejected. Sanitary and hygiene products are approved.
- Any and all Presents gifted by The Blue Hand Group can not be sold.
- As the Presents will be delivered to your address it is your responsibility to be present to receive the package(s) or to go to the post office and retrieve them. Our team will, of course, provide all relevant postage information to you such as estimated date/time of arrival, tracking links, etc.
- All Presents gifted by The Blue Hand Group must be used within the household of the postal address provided. For example, a guardian can purchase school supplies, but not gift those school supplies to a neighbor or friend. This benevolent program is for those who truly require support for themselves or for any dependents that they may be caring for.

New & Gently Used Presents

- Each approved individual with a UIN can only receive access to the Presents a maximum of ten times a year. Sadly, we are underfunded and wish we could provide more consistent support. However, we need to be able to provide benevolent support to as many in need as our organisation can manage.
