

In a warm and cosy house with a ginormous back garden, lived a cat named Frosty McFluffypants. Now, Frosty was not just an ordinary cat.
Oh no.

Frosty was a special cat.

He was very fluffy and very black, with snowy-white frosty splashes in all the right places – his right front paw, his back left paw, the tip of his tail, his squishy nose, left ear, and a soft white chest.
