

Laws in my mind

Romans 7:22 For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man. But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

1. There is a law within my mind to get revenge when others hurt me, but I am to forgive them and treat evil with good.
2. There is a law within my mind that I need to keep money for myself, but I am instructed to share it.
3. There is a law within my mind that hurry is more productive, but I am to practice patience towards peace.
4. There is a law within my mind that I'm not good enough, but when I am with God, I am good enough.

Inwardly we have beliefs that guide us into action. We have trained inward thought behavior functioning to direct us. We are convinced in ways ungodly. All this affects our faith.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other,

2 Peter 1:5 But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge,

We are to build our inwardness to abide more in God. This means we are to learn our ungodly ways and make corrections toward love, peace, forgiveness, patience, mercy, truth, justice, kindness, and the like. We are to raise our awareness of our beliefs and thought behavior.

2 Corinthians 10:4-6 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.

When we are ready, we begin writing down our inward laws which guide us.

My Law - (what I believe I should do: anger, be afraid, sabotage, lie, procrastinate, yell, etc.)
