ST. MICHAEL CATHOLIC CHURCH

Weekend of June 19 & 20, 2021

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Father's Day Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Please bless fathers everywhere
with patience, gentleness,
and strength;
treasured moments,
days, and years;
love that goes the extra length.

Please give to all grandfathers
delight in fatherhood
again;
time to reflect on true
wisdom;
love shared with
treasured children.

I pray, too, for godfathers
applauding triumphs,
drying tears;
finding ways to impart
their faith;
bringing Your promises
near.

Amen.

Dads, by your example, you are each living out the life that St. Joseph did. Every father has his child for a little while and then sends that child into the world on mission. God bless you for living out your vocational call!

Lay Leanings

By Deacon Mike Stewart

I have a friend who's waiting for some important news. She tells me she doesn't wait particularly well. "I hate it," she shared with me. "I feel really trapped when I'm not in control of any aspect of something this important. I admit ... I have control issues, but this waiting, helplessly, is brutal."

"You realize you do have some control, don't you?" I assured her.

"Yeah, like what?" she questioned. "I feel powerless to do anything but wait."

I inquired. "Well, then what are you doing with your waiting time, except waiting ... and obviously worrying yourself to death?"

"I'm trying to keep myself busy ... to get my mind off it," she complained, "but nothing's working."

"Have you tried praying about it?" I asked. She returned a 'I-never-thought-about-that' look.

"So what good is praying going to do?" she challenged in frustration. "Nothing ever seems to change whether I pray or not."

"Do you know what the opposite of control is?" I asked.

"Ah ... un-control?" she smiled with a look of puzzlement.

"Nice try ... but the opposite of control ... is faith," I answered. "To the extent that you're willing to yield complete control to the One who knows your future as well as your past and present, then and only then will you find peace in this difficult time."

Control is a particular problem for our culture, and whether we accept it or not, it's largely an illusion. Unless we can see and know our future with certainty, we can only hope to control the moment we're in ... that's it. And yet, most of our frustrations surrounding control deal with our inability to know the future with certainty. I have only the moment I'm in ... it's up to God whether there will be a next moment for me.

In our culture, we're encouraged to 'take charge' ... 'get a hold of ourselves ... 'take control of our life'. Well, I suppose on a practical level that's not bad advice; but only on a practical level. Until we make room for God to be God, our Creator to be our Creator, will we begin to surrender the delusion that we really control anything more than the moment we're living in.

The human heart plans the way,

but the LORD directs the steps.. Proverbs 16:9
