PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Ministry News

~St Michael Fund Raising Committee –The 2021 St. Michael Christmas ornament is here, and are on sale after Mass. Quantities are limited, so get them while they last, only $20. Check out their supply of some previous years, there are still some available.

~St Michael Knights of Columbus -Time to bring back your baby bottle for the Knights annual charity fundraising drive. Bring it to Mass or drop it by the parish office. This year's proceeds will benefit the Gulf Coast Center for Non-violence. Interested in joining the Knights? Please see a member, find an application form in the entry of the church or you can join online. Next Knights of Columbus Meeting is November 8th at 6pm in the Family Life Center.

~St. Michael Saint Vincent de Paul Runs completely on your donations of food and money. During this holiday season, the need becomes even more apparent and utilized. To make a donation of food or money bring to St. Michael's office, leave in basket in entry of church (money can be placed in poor box, checks payable to SVDP) or give to Mrs. Cynthia Powell. Thank you for all your support in this worthwhile ministry that helps the people of East Biloxi.

~St Michael Card Ministry -This Outreach program, which runs purely on your donations, make a difference in our neighbors and friends lives. Thank you for all the help with postage and cards. To continue to give see a Outreach member or call the office.

Lay Leanings

By Deacon Mike Stewart

I'm a fledgling artist, so the scene before me was a reminder of what's possible when you take a blank canvas and transform it with an abundance of color. We were up north for a weekend, and the colors of Fall against the backdrop of blue lakes and an even bluer sky was absolutely stunning. Mother Nature certainly held nothing back this year. Of course, I wanted to savor the moment, but I also wanted to share it with others; so I snapped a dozen or so pictures with my phone. Unfortunately, when I looked at them later, I recognized that it just wasn't the same; the pictures simply did not do justice to the reality of the stunning beauty I witnessed earlier. I recalled having had that same experience while visiting Alaska several years earlier. One of my favorite rock and roll artists, Rod Stewart, penned a hit song many years ago, 'Every Picture Tells a Story'. Not always, I thought to myself ... not always.

This week we celebrate Thanksgiving, a time when we traditionally pause to give thanks for the many blessings in our lives. It occurs to me that much of our lives are spent looking at the world through the lens of someone else's reality. We read and respond to their posts on social media; we look at their pictures and draw conclusions; we watch television or read an article ... but in truth, it's just a picture of someone else's reality ... nothing more.

The people and things that truly 'bless' us ... the people and things for which we are most grateful, are those in our own reality. I can share with you how truly blessed I am to share life with my best friend, or how much my children and grandchildren mean to me, or how grateful I am that God called me into ministry, but in reality, my words can't see into the depth of my heart. No picture can do that. God gave that to me to experience in its fullness; and it's that reality for which I am most grateful this year, and always.

In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thes 5:18
