

Princess Cruise Lines

Candidate Quick Info

About the company

Princess Cruise Lines also known as Princess Cruises started in 1965 sailing to the Mexican Riviera with one vessel. The company has since grown and now has 18 vessels that sail quite literally around the world. The vessels visit Asia, Oceania, Europe, and the Americas. Some of the ships sailing on round the world cruises will also visit Africa and the Indian Sub-continent. Whilst you are unlikely to visit all of these places during your first contract, if you stay long enough eventually you may see them all! Princess Cruises is famous for its great service, The Love Boat TV Series from the seventies, visiting more destinations than any other cruise line and being the Consummate Host®

Amazing Ships

Why would you want to work for Princess Cruise Lines?

Princess offers amazing career opportunities for the right people. You have been selected to take up an opportunity with Princess for many reasons. We recognize that you have great skills for your position, a positive, happy and outgoing personality and of course a sense of adventure. Working for Princess gives you an opportunity to see some of the world. Often these are places that you had never thought of visiting.

Princess Cruises will help to develop yourself and build your career

See the world, get paid, develop your career, meet the most amazing people.....why would anyone not want to work at Princess Cruises?

What to expect – the good stuff

Princess will pay for your meals, your accommodation, airfares, uniforms, medical insurance and of course pay you a salary at the end of the month. With virtually no expenses onboard, no traffic jams and a chance to explore parts of the world it really is a great place to work. Add to that the opportunity to develop yourself and your career you may ask yourself why you didn't think of Princess cruises earlier

Anything else?

There are some forms to complete which your consultant can help you with. There may be some delays. We can't promise to get you on a ship straight away, in fact it can take up to 6 months.

Your consultant can explain more details to you and all of this is completely free so don't hesitate to ask for help. You will never be charged a fee for recruitment, admin or assistance of any kind.

What to expect – reality check

You can expect to work up to 13 hours per day, each day of your contract, share your cabin with a new friend, be completely overwhelmed by the sheer size of the ship and the scale of the operation and to be honest you will feel very tired at first and miss your family and friends back home very much

OK, so what's the cost?

There is always a price for everything right. With Princess Cruises you will need to pay for any visas required to join your assigned vessel. In addition, you will need a Criminal background check, a recognized seafarers medical and in some cases an English test and a seaman's book. These can be expensive and we don't expect anyone to pay anything until they have received an official letter of offer.
