Martie and Sandy send a big shout out to Deborah Long Smith, Dora Clarkson, Joyce Lake, Maureen Sherback and Martie Lincoln for the beautiful, creative arrangements these ladies made for our May exhibit at the Wolfeboro library. We had lots of compliments on the display and the arrangements.

If you'd like to do an arrangement for our October exhibit , please contact Martie or Sandy

Facebook issue.....

Some of you may have noticed that there are two fb pages under the WGC title. One of the fb pages was co-opted by someone who began posting pictures of flowers and jewelry that she sells. These posts have been eliminated. In the meantime our new publicity Chair, Julie Fergus began a new legitimate Facebook page. I have archived the old page which means that you can still access it and see old posts. All new posts going forward will be on the new site.

If you are trying to distinguish between old and new sites, our new and legitimate page has a photo of flowers as its cover photo and our logo in the round circle as its profile picture.
