

★★★ VOLUNTEER JOB OPENING ★★★

At this time, the United American Foundation is looking to expand their team with dedicated volunteers who will provide key support for the establishment of UAF's mission. We are looking for the following individual that can provide much needed support.

UAF NEWS ANALYST

JOB ROLE:

UAF is looking for a news analyst that can provide beneficial insights from the realm of political news to the residents of Harford County, Maryland. This collection & gathering of news will be extremely vital for the advancement of UAF's mission. The data collected and studied will then be shared with the UAF Team and sought for approval to be posted on their official website. With the approval of the UAF Admin Team, the analyst will be able to post their comments and/or post an editorial on the site.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

- Must have the ability to read & understand online news postings, news articles, news announcements, all related content that is specially aimed towards the citizens of Harford County.
- Must have the ability to verify and determine from real vs fake news, ability to analyze and conduct a thorough check with a secondary source to determine the validity of the news segment.
- Able to construct a short summary or synopsis of the aforementioned news. This summary will be shared with the UAF Admin team (written and verbally)
- Analyst should be familiar with key websites, news sources, media outlets, social media postings on all political news that pertains to Harford County residents. This will be an ongoing learning segment of this role.

JOB QUALIFICATION:

- ✓ Must have great analytical skills, should be able to read political articles and understand the nature of the news.
- ✓ Must have a good understanding of political knowledge, local politics, state politics & national level politics.
- ✓ Must be detail oriented, team player, active in social-media, and should be a fast learner.
- ✓ Should have completed High School (HS seniors are encouraged to apply).

If you think you have what it takes and want to excel in this role, don't delay send a 6-sentence bio about yourself, make sure to include why you want to take this role. Note; UAF can provide volunteering recommendation letters, service learning hours, and can certainly act as a reference check for future job roles. Also note; your assistance will be broadcasted; your notoriety will be on full display and can be shared with future employers. An excellent opportunity to take part in to advance your career (in any field), many employers today look for volunteering efforts done by candidates, this can surely suffice that requirement. This role requires on avg: 2-4 hours of work per week. Apply now!!

Send us your info & why you want to take this role at info@uafmd.org or text at 443.469.4806 for more info.