SENIOR SPOTLIGHT:

Maddie Hatton (she/her)

How have you been involved here at BGSU?

I have had the honor to perform in shows such as The Train (Person B), Exit, Pursued by a Bear (Nan Carter), Hecate Hill (Kylie), The Harvest (Ada), Electra (Chrysothemis), and this semester I will be playing Raelynn Nix in John Proctor is the Villain. I have also been on both wardrobe crew and deck crew for a few productions as well as participated in staged readings including Lemonade Stand, My Body No Choice, and Medea Kills Her Children. Finally, I have been so grateful to be a part of the film side of our department by acting in student films such as Proxemics (Becca), The One Within the Woods (Mother), and Mother and Daughter (Cindy).

Graduating in April 2024 with a BAC specializing in acting and directing

What has been your most impactful theatrical experience here at BGSU?

While I learned a lot from every role I've played, I would have to say it was actually the London Trip of March 2023 that was the most impactful for me. Three things that stood out to me on that trip: Shakespeare's Globe, Harry Potter set at Warner Bros Studios, and the Sherlock Holmes Museum. I group these experiences together because they each represent fictional pieces of art that have impacted the lives of people across generations all around the world. They each have created worlds for people to escape into, and what is that if not art? They remind me why I chose to go down this artistic path.

What are your theatrical goals and how do you hope to achieve them after graduation?

Right now, I plan on moving back home to Delaware, OH for a gap year to grind and save up some money while submitting to small productions (plays, films, really anything I can get) on the side. After, I would like to move to a bigger city with an active theater scene to focus on my acting. Right now, that city has been Chicago, but we'll see!

What advice would you give to Future Falcons and underclassmen?

Regarding our department and college as a whole, it is what you make it to be. Work hard to get the results that you want, meet new people, take chances, experience new things, and learn about the person you want to be. It's all about growth and change, embrace it.

DEPARTMENT EVENTS

Be sure to support Alpha Psi Omega on Tuesday January 16th for a fundraiser at Rapid Fired Pizza from 11:00am - 9:00pm.

Then we hope to see you for our first meeting of the semester at 10:30pm at the Wolfe in room 211!
