

What is Highland Rivers Health?

- Highland Rivers Health is a Community Service Board (CSB) (an “instrumentality of the state” but not a state agency)
- One of 24 CSBs in Georgia designated by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD)
- Highland Rivers is a DBHDD Tier I Core safety-net provider (CSBs serve individuals who otherwise would not have access to behavioral health services)

What does Highland Rivers do?

- Delivers services and supports for individuals with mental illness, substance use disorders, and intellectual and developmental disabilities
- Provider of behavioral health services for adults, children and adolescents, families and veterans
- Outpatient clinics, community locations, individuals' homes, schools, residential facilities, jails, crisis/detox units

Key facts

- Approximately 650 employees
- Refer to those who receive our services as individuals – and serve more than 16,000 individuals each year
- Focus on RECOVERY
- Large organization – always evolving, changing and improving

Executive leadership

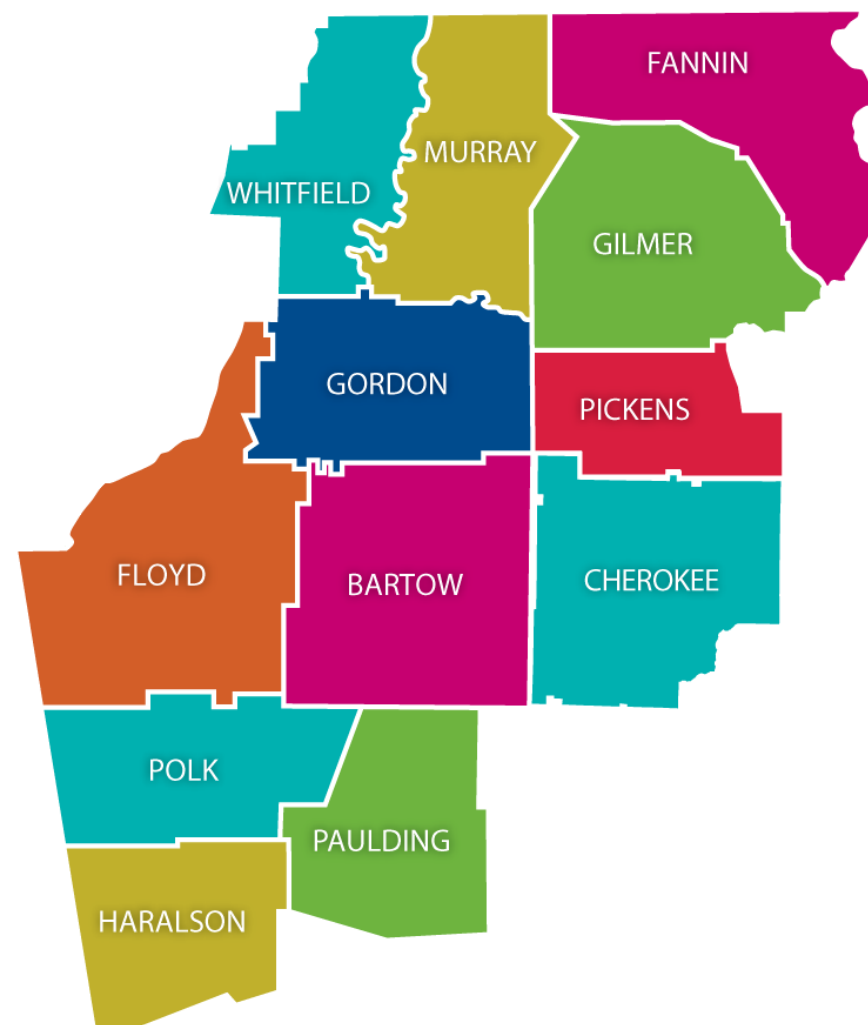

Chief Executive Officer
Melanie Dallas, LPC

Chief Medical Officer
Fransisca MgBodile, MD

Highland Rivers service territory

- 12 counties
- 4,400 square miles
- 1 million people

Highland Rivers services

- Outpatient and intensive outpatient
- Crisis stabilization/transitional
- Residential
- Community-based – services provided to individuals, often in their homes, by a clinical team that includes a physician, nurse, peer specialist, case manager and more

Assertive community treatment, intensive case management, community support services, addictive disease support services

Nine outpatient clinics

Bartow County – Cartersville

Gilmer County – Ellijay

Pickens County – Jasper

Cherokee County – Canton

Gordon County – Calhoun

Polk County – Cedartown

Floyd County – Rome

Paulding County – Hiram

Whitfield County – Dalton

Three Crisis Stabilization Units

Serve all 31 counties in DBHDD Region 1

Residential Treatment Unit
Polk County – Cedartown

Crisis Stabilization Unit
Floyd County – Rome

Treatment Services
Whitfield County – Dalton

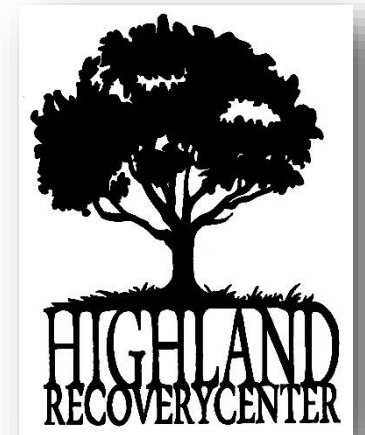

Two residential treatment centers

Women's Outreach
Floyd County – Rome

Highland Recovery Center
Pickens County – Jasper

Two adolescent clubhouses

Choices Clubhouse
Substance use
Floyd County – Rome

ROC Clubhouse
Mental health/resiliency
Bartow County – Cartersville

Recovery Community Center

Funded by DBHDD, Mosaic Place is a addiction recovery center that provides peer-led activities and support.

Polk County – Cedartown

Two IDD day programs

Many programs that serve individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities operate under the Kaleidoscope program

One Door Polk
Polk County – Cedartown

Cleveland Highway
Whitfield County – Dalton

For more information

- Visit Highland Rivers Health website:

<http://highlandrivershealth.com>