Trying to Unwind

influencer corner

Hello from TryingToUnwind, a cheap and cheerful travel blog. We are Kevin and Kara, two retired accountants, and we travel full-time in a 38' Class A diesel pusher. We enjoy learning by reading so we share our experiences in easy-to-read, educational articles. Trying to Unwind was created to inspire others to experience new places, make epic memories and venture off the beaten path without breaking their budget.

In 2013, we purchased our 38' diesel pusher primarily for weekend travel including college football tailgates. In 2018, we sold our house and moved into our motorhome. After 5 years of full-time RVing, we have crisscrossed the United States multiple times including seasons in both Mexico and Canada.

We enjoy a leisurely pace of travel, but diesel fuel is still a large part of our travel budget, so we utilize several methods to save on diesel fuel. After joining TSD (now Open Roads), we started sharing this secret with all of our RV friends and readers.

The best part is Open Roads doesn't charge membership fees, so there's no risk to joining. We love knowing they only get paid when we save money and we pay nothing when we don't use it.

Check www.TryingToUnwind.com for destination-specific travel guides, including dozens of National Parks, and educational articles about RV solar, boondocking, and water treatment in RV life.

Follow us @TryingToUnwind on Instagram or Facebook for travel inspiration.

Colossians 3:13

"Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you."
