

"World Music & Dance" event held to celebrate Diwali

TACH awarded "AWARD OF EXCELLENCE" to Dallas Smith & Susan Mazer on the eve of DIWALI

Grand Opening of TACH on the eve of Diwali through the event "World Music and Dance", which organized in a grand scale at Laxalt Auditorium on Nov 2nd. First time in Reno people got a chance to see this unforgettable event.

The event starts with the welcome speech of Tanya Singh who lightened about TACH. She told that TACH works for Global Artist Management, Music Education, Cultural Exchange Program, Fusion Music Collaboration and Development for Traditional Cultural Harmony and many more. She also announced that TACH will give "Award of Excellence" every year who work commendably in the field of music for all over the USA musicians.

Mr. Pete Fairley speak loud the Certificate of recognition which TACH received by the Governor of Nevada Brian Sandoval and the Proclamation by the Mayor of Reno Robert A. Cashell. Spark Mayor Geno R Martini & Captain Pat Lee inaugurate the event. Mr. Martini gave the recognition letter to TACH and also Mr. Lee handed over the recognition letter send by Washoe County Sheriff Mr. Tim Kuzanek to TACH. Lamp Lightening is done by Geno R Martini, Pat Lee, Rajan Zed, Chakrapani Singh and Tanya Singh.

"Award of Excellence" awarded to the famous Saxophonist / Flute and Harp player Dallas Smith & Susan Mazer. After this the event starts with the Dance of Dr. Barnali which was based on the composition of Rabindra Nath Tagore. Audiences TRADITIONALASSOCIATIONFORCULTURALHARMONY spell bound with the Raag Vrindavai Sarang performed by world famous musician Chakrapani Singh by listening of the melodious and rhythmic sound of his unique Kachhapi Veena. This was accompanied on Tabla by Pete Fairley & Siar Haseq. Ghazals presented by Ganesh Swami & Shayanti Ghoshal which was accompanied by Naresh Sabnis on Harmonium, Siar Haseq on Tabla, Shailesh Patel on Percussion and Danny Birch on Sarod. They gripped the audiences with their melodious voice. After refreshment the awardees Dallas Smith & Susan Mazer came together on Saxophone / Flute and Harp. They fascinate audiences and got standing ovation. Audiences amazed by the performance of the Kathak Dancer Anya Devi (Lisa Knutson ) which was accompanied by Danny Birch on Sarod and Michael Hane on Tabla. Stage was well managed by Jim Eaglesmith and Pete Fairley. Chakrapani Singh thanks to the entire guest who came to make the event success. All the audiences of Reno and it's border who came just to see this event they thrilled and asking about more & more upcoming events from TACH. This event with the collaboration of Indian Americans of Reno was a Grand Success. Kind Regards

Tanya Singh
TRAKJGKJGLOGOUG
GKIGGGKIDITAMBAL
'DBJMADBDVABVIO
NALASSOCIATIONFO
R

Entre a La Voz
Hispana en Nevada
usando el escáner
de su teléfono

La VOZ Hispana

lavozhispana2001@yahoo.com (775) 722-8226

En Nevada Inc.

The Spanish Newspaper

Periódico
quincenal. Año 13

11/06/2013

Edición # 23

El Periódico de la comunidad

