

TRADITIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR CULTURAL HARMONY CELEBRATES DIWALI

Chakrapani Singh
Kachappi Veena

Jim Meiklejohn
Tabla (Drum)

Danny Birch
SAROD

Peter Fairley
Tabla (Drum)

Ravi Pandita
Violin , CA

Featuring :
INDIA'S WORLD FAMOUS
"ODISSI DANCE"
By Renowned Dancer ,
Teacher & Performer
ANINDITA NANDA

18th Oct' 2014 @ 7 PM
@ Laxalt Auditorium (UNR)
401 West 2nd St., Reno, NV 89509

TACH (Traditional Association for Cultural Harmony) a nonprofit organization presents Nevada 150th Birthday & Festival of Diwali with Music and Dance on Oct 18th, 2014 at Laxalt Auditorium (UNR), 401 West 2nd St, Reno @ 7.00pm.

This concert will present a collaboration of Indo-American artist, an Indian Dance, Indian Classical Kachappi Veena, and Sarod. There will be a jam session of music among Veena, Sarod and Tabla at the event. Top artists presenting at the events are:

Anindita Nanda (Connecticut), Odissi Dancer Anindita, a danseuse par excellence is a rare combination of dancer, classical vocalist, choreographer, teacher & scholar. She is an accomplished artist and is a known name with in the Odissi genre. Her dance has the excellent blend of sensuous movement, graceful stances and strong defined footwork with absolute control of the rhythm and space. The elaborate choreography's, fluidity of her movements and intrinsic foot works are trademark of her performances and her creations. She received "Nriya Shree", "Nriya Visharad" and "Nriya Praveen" from Kala Vikash Kendra, and the National Music Association, Katak.

Chakrapani Singh (Reno), Chakrapani is the one of the generations' brightest stars with a career that promises to be illustrious and innovative. Each steps of Chakrapani's everlasting love and fiery passion for music is undoubtedly captivating and joyful journey for the music lovers of the world. As a musician, he leaves every music lover spell bound with his flashes of unparalleled brilliance and his uncanny ability to strike an instant rapport with the audiences transcending of all ages.

Ravi Pandita (Sacramento, CA), Ravi is an avid violin player. Started learning and recording music at an early age, Ravi is currently working in Information Technology in Sacramento.

Danny Birch (Reno, NV), learned Sarod in Nepal & India. He composed directed and performed music for number of stage dramas in Nepal with the Studio 7 Troupe. Danny has also performed at Nepal Radio and TV.

Peter Fairley & Jim Meiklejohn (Reno, NV), Peter is a student of Zakir Hussain and Jim is learning from Sapan Choudhury. Both are going to accompany Chakrapani Singh on tabla.

To find more about TACH, visit: www.tach.info

TACH Presents
A Celebration of
Nevada 150th Birthday &
Festival of Diwali With Music & Dance

Chakrapani Singh
Kachappi Veena

Jim Mciklejohn
Tabla (Drum)

Danny Birch
SAROD

Peter Fairley
Tabla (Drum)

Ravi Pandita
Violin , CA

Featuring :
INDIA'S WORLD FAMOUS
"ODISSI DANCE"
By Renowned Dancer ,
Teacher & Performer
ANINDITA NANDA
CONNECTICUT , USA

18th Oct' 2014 @ 7 PM
@ Laxalt Auditorium (UNR)
401 West 2nd St., Reno, NV 89509

Buy ticket online through PayPal
Visit : www.tach.info, or at the Door

email : saregadoremi@gmail.com , Call us-775-336-9733

Ticket Adult- $10, Family ; Parents with 2 child) — $25, Senior Citizen or Student-$5

RECENT POSTS

- Seven Students Named National Merit Scholarship Corporation Winners
- Congratulations Graduates!
- National Bengali Conference Cancelled. Fund Raising Planned for COVID and Cyclone Victims
- 2020 Primary Elections – Candidate Endorsements
- Life Management Skills Teleconference by Jeevanvidya Center