

Tradition and The Native Sons of The Golden West

The California Admission Day Parade in September 9, 1950, was the midpoint in our 150 year history.

Thousands lined the streets. Notice the political signs:
Earl Warren is seeking reelection to his third term as governor.
Richard Nixon, to his first run for the U.S. Senate.

Warren would go on to serve as Chief Justice of The United States Supreme Court.

Nixon became our 37th President.

Both men were Native Sons of The Golden West.

You are part of that tradition.

Your mother, father, brothers or sisters may be one of these viewers of the parade alongside the Main Library.

Don't forget the past.
Help create a better future.
