Dear Ms. Wolcox:

Thank you so much for inviting me into Five-Star Recruiters, Inc. for an interview last Friday morning. The quality/sales/marketing position presented to me sounds like a fantastic career opportunity. Please also thank Lorenzo for meeting with me. I am especially excited at the prospect of building business and thus a broader client base. It is obvious to me that SQP recognizes the need for long-term customer relationships and commitment and sees both as beneficial to the company and its clients.

Let me reiterate my interest in working for your company. I have over 19 years of experience in multiple IT environments spanning several industries and am presently a Director of Quality Assurance for an Internet solutions company. I know what it takes to build quality practices into a systems arena and am ready to lend my expertise wherever necessary. Couple that with the fact I possess marketing degrees and have been teaching sales, marketing, and management courses for over 11 years, and you must agree that I am a natural fit into the SQP organization.

Thanks again for inviting me in. I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Abigail M. DuChene
