ALLERGY & SAFETY DISCLAIMER

Your safety is important to us.

Whilst we use high-quality products, on a rare occasion, some individuals may experience allergic reactions or skin sensitivities.

PLEASE NOTE:

Face paints, glitter products, adhesives, henna, transfer tattoos, tooth gems, and hair accessories may contain ingredients that could cause irritation in sensitive individuals.

We do not offer tooth gem services to ages below 16, a guardian will need to be present to provide consent for ages between 16 and 18. ID required.

If you have any known allergies, skin conditions, sensitivities, or concerns, please inform us before receiving a service.

A patch test is recommended for anyone with sensitive skin or has had a history of allergic reactions.

Children must have parental or guardian consent before receiving any service.

We cannot guarantee that reactions will not occur and accept no liability for allergic reactions resulting from products used during treatment.

By choosing to receive a service, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this disclaimer and proceed at your own risk.

If irritation occurs, discontinue use immediately and seek medical advice if necessary.

Thank you for helping us keep your experience safe and enjoyable.
