

INGA WYGANT

PIANIST & COMPOSER

BIO

Inga Wygant is an award-winning pianist and composer who has studied piano for 13 years, including her training with The Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto, Canada.

She has participated in master classes with distinguished piano masters such as Antonio Pompa-Baldi, Vivian Li, Eduardo Delgado, Pierre Réach, Andreas Fröhlich and Michail Lifits.

Inga participated in the 2024 and 2026 Todi International Music Masters in Italy performing as both a soloist and with orchestra.

Inga looks forward to further study with renowned piano masters and additional orchestral and solo performances.

Inga is currently studying with Professor Antonio Pulleghini at the Conservatorio di Mantova in Italy.

As a composer, her works have been performed by the International Contemporary Ensemble and featured in projects by Clarice Assad (Grammy nominated) at the Mainly Mozart Festival.

Now based in Italy, Inga continues to develop her artistry as both a performer and composer, sharing her passion for music with audiences.
