Monday Morning Musings

2022 Final

The last Trumpet of 2022.

This last week was a “to-the-bone chiller” and a royal road mess. We had to cancel Christmas Eve and the year's final worship service. Sad, but necessary for the safety of our members and visitors. I like to take the last TRUMPET of the year to thank all the members of the Grove and regular attenders for how they make, as Lou Lowery put it: "There is no place like this place any place."

2022 Thank yous:

Thanks to the Elders, Jim and Jerry for their vision, wisdom, and leadership.

Thanks to Jordan for his family, youth ministry, work, and leadership in this digital age.

Thanks to Marta for all the bulletins, TRUMPETS, E-prayers, ordering supplies, and office management.

Thanks to Denise for keeping PERFECT accounting books

Thanks to our volunteer ministry leaders: Jyl, Kevin, Sandra, Marta, Jaynie.

Thanks to our Deacons: Charlie, Kevin, Butch.

Thank you to our nursery and junior church volunteers: Darceil, Jaynie, Jillian, Michele, Pam, and Phylicia.

Praise Team, thank you for the Spirit-inspired music and song! The saints who put in hours of practice are Bruce, Chuck, Danny, Devan, Jaynie, Jyl, Linda, and Phil.

Thank you to the ladies who work almost invisibly, keeping the flower beds weed-free and beautiful.

Thank you to the behind-the-scenes prayer warriors, praying for the ministry staff, missions, outreach, our sick, and shut-ins.

Thank you to the Elders and congregation for the privilege of preaching gospel at the Grove in 2022.
