Monday Morning Musings

JOIN US AFTER MORNING WORSHIP
ON SUNDAY, JANUARY 22
AT 12:30 – 2 PM

We invite you to come and hear a presentation from Mulberry International Mission.

Mulberry International Mission is a Restoration Movement mission agency that proclaims Jesus as the Savior of the world and supports several endeavors for the people of Mariupol, Ukraine.

From their website: <https://mulberryinternational.org>:

“Mulberry has been working with displaced and at-risk families and children in the city of Mariupol since 2015. Since the war began, we lost some friends and ministry centers, but we haven’t lost all our team members and volunteers, who are now in many towns and villages across Ukraine and beyond. They never stopped serving others.”

Mulberry is a Grape Grove VBS mission project and was featured in our 2016 VBS.

Their Executive Director, Natasha Reimer, will be at the Grove on Sunday, January 22 to give a presentation on their continuing work. After the Russian invasion, they successfully evacuated the children and staff from Mariupol last year.

Natasha will give a presentation and answer questions after our Church “Souper-Sunday” fellowship from 12:30-2:00. She has to leave for a presentation in Kentucky at 2:00.
