MONDAY AFTERNOON MUSING (767)

Vacation Bible School 2019, the Incredible race is complete. It was an incredible success!

Jordan and his intrepid band of travel guides led 25-30 children on an around the world tour of five continents. They learned about different cultures and how God created all races from Adam and Eve. They saw the spiritual mistakes people and nations can make and how God sent Jesus to bring all humanity back into his kingdom.

We have to thank God for the insight and energy he gave to the volunteers and church staff. When I pass out praise, I always run the danger of leaving some people out and offending. So, in advance, please forgive me for not addressing the contributions of everyone involved. The LORD knows your labor of love. We'll just list the departments.

Decorations—fantastic!

Video and sound—wonderful!

Teachers—splendid work!

Snack Center staff—imaginative and cheerful!

Crafts—Wow!

Teen workers—splendid labor of love!

Outdoor recreation—much energy and excitement!

Gold-stars to everyone!

We set a goal of funding 50 welcome bags for Christian Children's Home of Ohio. The cost of the CCHO is 15-20 dollars per bag, roughly 1000 dollars. The children and adults' offerings totaled just over $1,100. Praise the Lord!

KAIROS Praise service. Kairos is a Greek word that means, a moment in time. Starting September 14, the Grape Grove Church will hold a Saturday evening praise service. Coffee fellowship starts at 6:30, and the worship starts at 7:00. It is a one-hour service with contemporary music and singing, a devotional message, prayer, and praise. The service is scheduled for the second Saturday of each month. I would love to see it turn into an every Saturday evening worship.
