

JACQUELINE URQUIDEZ

Dancer, Choreographer, Teacher

Jacqueline Urquidez is an Orange County born dancer, currently residing in Fort Collins CO, who trained in Tap, Jazz, Hip Hop, Jazz Funk, Contemporary, Lyrical and Ballet at her home studio-The Dance Centre. While studying formal dance training at Colorado State University, she has performed in over 20 concert pieces, set choreography in two shows in the styles of contemporary/modern and tap/jazz funk, and has performed in festivals and conferences both in and out of state. She is a versatile dancer who uses the fusion of styles paired with dynamic focus and musicality to combat her unique style. Currently, she is seeking company work to further her technique and performance within the practice of athleticism, energy, and community.
