

A photographer specializing in black and white photography, Melvin Lockett relocated to Benson from Phoenix. His work represents his vision of abandoned places and architecture in various cities in the West and Southwest. Occasionally Melvin delves into color photography - mostly of flowers.

His website is www.melvinlockettphotography.com