

Maria Spiess

While working at the Columbus College of Art & Design as an Engineering Technician and later at Help Desk Manager, I developed an interest in photography.

So many talented professionals shared their work and their love for the beauty captured by their lens.

When I moved to Cochise County three years ago, with all the beauty readily available here, I naturally picked up the camera and found that I had loved photography.

