

July Newsletter 2022

Happy New Year everyone! That's the fiscal new year anyway and the start of another great Monsoon season.

As most of you know the council has newly elected officers and some new board members. Congratulations to everyone.

Monsoon season is a great time for those fantastic Storm photos, and this year the main event category for the Photography show is Cochise Monsoon Magic. Applications for the Photography Show will be available August 1st. So, Get Ready!

Events coming up this month...Mark your calendar for the third Thursday Art Share at Endeavor gallery July 21st at 12noon. This Month will be copper artist Jackie Bradley. Jackie will be demonstrating methods of Torch enameling. This will be a fun demo and we might get some hands-on experience. Come early seating is limited.

St David Pioneer Days Art Show July 22 and 23.

Stronghold Art Gallery paint party " Whimsical Desert" July 21 and 22nd. Limited seats so, reserve your spot 520-990-1545.

Reminder that this is the start of a new year and membership dues can be made online and at the Gallery $15.00 a year and $20 for family memberships. Always a great Deal!

We are sad to report that our friend and fellow Artist Gail Klein has passed away. Gail was a wonderful painter and wood sculptor. We will miss Gail's kind and creative presence. There will be a Celebration of Life for Gail on Saturday July 9th 2pm to 6pm at the VFW in Benson.

233 E 5th Street

Next to the museum and around the corner from Endeavor Gallery.

Until next month, stay dry and let's create awesome art!
