President's Message

Hello and welcome to the month of all things pumpkin spice. The holiday season is here, and the weather is reminding us that in the south its time to get out and play ! Cooler temperatures and we have friends that have returned for the winter season, so let's have fun and visit our favorite art venues and maybe discover some new ones.

Congratulations to all our winners in the Photography show this year. Especially our young photographers, what a great turn out. It was one of our young artists from Benson who won the peoples choice award; Danielle Salder for "Pollinating Bee" Great job! And the Best in Show winner; Debbie Thoumisiin for "Who's There ?" A special thanks to Lorraine Milne for organizing a great show.

Please join us for this month's art share, we have Len Ambergey, his program is titled "Beauty in the Stars, the Art of Astrophotography" Come early to see his beautiful photos and visit with Len.

Hope to see you all for the Change out on Saturday the 5th.

Keep Creating

This Guy knows it's to close to thanksgiving to identify as a Turkey.

You can find him hanging out in the Giftshop.

Giftshop

Time to get a head start on the Holiday shopping. The giftshop has a wonderful selection of fanciful gifts, greeting cards and Holiday jewelry.

Ornaments will be on display right after Thanksgiving and all our items are made by local Artisans.

The change out is November 5th so by the eighth the Gallery will have all new art and some new artists showing off their creative talent.

We have children's art to professional art and in many styles, sizes, and mediums.

Come check it out!

Now through December you can experience the wonderful art depicting life on the ranch by Daphene Wilkes.

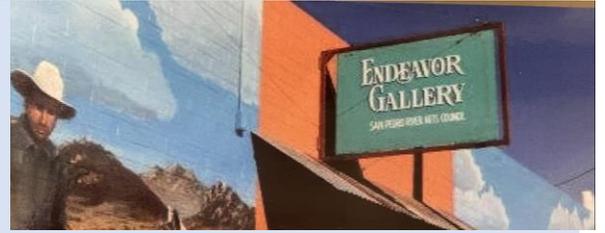

Daphene is a long-time member that works primarily in acrylics and paints western landscapes.

San Pedro River Arts Council's mission is to foster the growth and development of new and experienced artists. We support youth art education and work with other organizations in the County.

Endeavor Gallery is a non-juried gallery that displays members original works of art.
