

San Pedro River Arts Council Newsletter

November 2023

Hello Art Friends, time to get ready for the Holidays!

Endeavor Gallery has a change out on the 4th so come by this month and see all the new art on display and pick up a few gifts for the loved ones. We also have our annual sidewalk sale on November 11th 8 to 1pm lots of treasures to be found.

On a serious note, just a reminder that San Pedro River Arts Council is a nonprofit that is educational based in our mission. Therefore, our Gallery is non juried and open to all artists new and professional. We go by the strictest standards to ensure that all our artists are protected from copyright theft and malignment. Please make sure you are protected by educating yourself and are prepared to present only original art. SPRAC has educational material on copyright and what constitutes original art, so please ask if you have any questions or need help.

Keep Creating!

San Pedro River Arts Council's mission is to foster the growth and development of new and experienced artists. We support youth art education and work with other organizations in the County.

Endeavor Gallery is a non-juried gallery that displays members original works of art.

Artists of the Season

Lorraine and Mel Milne
Photographers and Nature lovers.

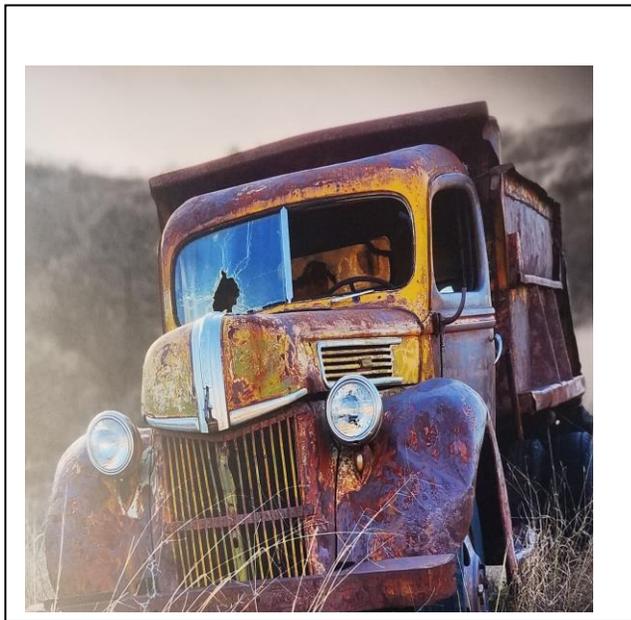

Both Lorraine and Mel are award winning photographers and dog lovers. Their photos are pure heaven for the southwest collector of landscapes and nature photography.

Many of you may know Lorraine for her dedication to our Gallery and as Vice President of SPRAC.

Lorraine is also the coordinator of the annual Photography show at Cochise College every October.

Thanks for contributing so much to our art community.
