

Anita Barkley

When Anita retired, she had a strong desire to learn how to paint. To pursue this passion, she participates in the "No Fear Painting Workshop" in Benson, paints weekly with a small group of friends in Tucson, and frequently watches online tutorials. Often, she paints alongside the tutorials.

Anita particularly loves creating floral artwork in both watercolor and acrylics, with landscapes being a close second. Furthermore, she relishes the chance to showcase and sell her paintings at the Endeavor Art Gallery and during the annual Fine Arts Show at Cochise College Benson Campus.
