

Joan B. Davenport is a versatile artist specializing in oil and acrylic painting, with additional expertise in pastel, scratchboard, and colored pencil. She is passionate about capturing the intricate beauty of animals and landscapes, known for her detailed sketching that informs and enriches her finished paintings. Joan honed her artistic skills at the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum Art Institute, where she completed a certificate program focused on nature art, benefiting from professional instruction and the inspiring desert environment. Her work reflects a deep appreciation for natural subjects, combining technical precision with a love for the outdoors.