I first want to express my gratitude and appreciation to Joel Sommer and Bob Goldwater for their tremendous effort in taking over the job of publishing and garnering ads for our new directory. It was recently distributed to all of our Unit's members. Unfortunately, there were a few omissions. There is an insert to this edition of Bridging the Counties which you all may remove and place in your directory. I would also like to thank Anne Bedrick (Joel's daughter) for the beautiful cover design.

Congratulations to Districts 3 and 24 for running a terrific and successful tournament over the July 4th week at the Crowne Plaza here in White Plains. Everyone enjoyed the fine location and the well-lit playing area. Many asked if this was going to be repeated. We all hope so.

I wish to thank District 3 for paying our entry fees in the Grand National Teams at the national finals and District 3 for giving an additional $500 to defray expenses. I don't think any of us reached the level we had hoped, but there is always next time.

I would like to remind all of those who qualified for the North American Pairs District 3 final that it is being held on Sunday, September 25th in Allendale, NJ. If you are not sure if you have qualified, you can check at your local club. Directions to Allendale will be available on District 3's website: <http://www.bridge-district3.org>

Coming up we have our Unit 188 charity event on October 2. We welcome any donations for our silent auction. We also have our fall sectionals at the Westchester County Center in White Plains November 4-6. Hope to see you all there.

I would like to leave you with a bidding problem from a pairs game at the NABC in Atlanta:

Editor's Corner

At the regional over the July 4th weekend in White Plains, there was a bracketed knockouts starting on Friday night and continuing on Saturday. Many regionals now run this event, and usually it is very popular with multiple brackets. For some reason (probably that there was an unusual team event - a four session Swiss Teams - that started on Saturday) only nine teams entered the entire event. As a result, the "bracketed" event had only one bracket. No easy gold points awarded for playing in a lower bracket. And no handicap for the lesser teams.

Furthermore, one team had as many masterpoints as the entire other eight teams combined. David Berkowitz, Bill Pollack and Rozanne Pollack were the biggest names on the talent laden team.

My team had to face this team twice - once in the quarterfinals, and again in the finals. 36 boards against them. Despite losing both times, it was memorable.

The first time, we sat against the Pollacks for twelve boards. People came to kibbitz (them, not us). After having a small lead at the half, we lost the match in the end. Both teams played a tough round, but everyone was very friendly. At the end of it, being complemented by the Pollacks for a good match made me feel a lot better about losing. (Fortunately, we were in a three-way so we still advanced by beating the other team.)

For the finals, our teammates decided to switch directions because they thought our hyper-modern system might give David Berkowitz and his partner a tougher time, so as to give us a better chance to win. We had no kibbitzers in our room this time; I don't know if there were any at the other table.

The switch didn't help us, as we trailed from wire to wire. But it did give me my first opportunity to play against David Berkowitz.

Again, the match was very friendly. David asked us if this was the Junior event. I, being a Cornell graduate, poked fun at David's partner Richard because he taught at Harvard. Richard poked right back with comments about Cornell, and referring to my partner Tim Baird's alma mater McGill as the "Harvard of the North." David spent all of his time as dummy reading the New York Times, and still commented on the hands afterwards.

Twice they doubled us in making part-score contracts for game swings. They stopped doubling us after that. We set them doubled in 6♠ for 1100 points. (It sounds better if I leave out the part that it was a good sacrifice against our 1430 for 6♥.)

Regardless of the outcome, it was bridge as it should be. Fun and friendly.

Jason Fuhrman

This N' That From Your District Director

I am writing this article before the Atlanta NABC has ended, so final attendance numbers are not yet known. However, we appear to be headed for somewhere in the neighborhood of 13,000 tables. This is about the size of our NABC last year in New York. Originally the ACBL was estimating Atlanta to be higher, but as they heard complaints about the 10 AM and 3 PM start times, they lowered the estimate. The game times were an experiment. It seems that players who don't like those times are very loud about it, and those who do like the times would have early games to play in anyway (except the NABC+ games which would start later). For sure, Denver will be back at the regular schedule, and it's likely next year will be the same. Atlanta was a great location. All of the bridge was under one roof, a fast food court readily accessible, lots of taxis, a short trip to the airport, and great hospitality and playing conditions. Compliments to the co-chairmen and all of the volunteers who made this a great tournament.

At the Board meetings in Atlanta, it was decided that the policy for funding NAP players at the national finals will be changed. Players will now be given the money for 3 nights of hotel rooms equal to the cost of the rooms at the host hotel, instead of having to stay at the host hotel. And for those of you who tend to foul boards when duplicating and the scoring is across the field, the penalty is lowered from a full board to 1/4 board.

Neither of these things affect most of us, but if they do they are changes for the better.

District 3's regionals continue to be great success stories. Saratoga Springs came in at over 1,200 tables. The Friday night dinner between sessions - compliments of the monies given to us by the ACBL after the NYC NABC exceeded expectations - was very well received. The Albany Unit works hard to get all of their players to attend, and their volunteers are great. This year the unit gave everyone that registered a set of labels with their ACBL number to place on entry blanks. Many people from Westchester attended, and they now know the drive is really not so long and worthwhile once you get there. The White Plains regional, a once in a lifetime tournament co-hosted with New York City, was simply fantastic. Everyone loved the location with its proximity to everything, and the 4th of July weekend is a great time to play bridge. Attendance soared to 1,500 tables - a super number for a new tournament. Thanks to: Mimi Bieber for helping to organize all the volunteers and pitching in everywhere when needed; Steve Surasky, our treasurer; Gina Tamres for chairing partnerships; Rhoda Levine and Barbara Skluth for the restaurant guide; Laura Brill, Rick Goldstein, Eileen Paley, Betty Fleischer, Marshall Frank, and hosts of others for making this a memorable event. District 3 wants to thank the Bridge Deck and Hartes' Club for closing their clubs during the tournament. Without this happening our success would not have been possible. Thanks for giving our local players a chance to win those coveted gold points in their own backyard.

We round out the year with our NAP finals in Allendale, NJ, at the Guardian Angel Church on September 25. If you qualified at a club, join us for this prestigious event. And then our last regional of the year is in Danbury, CT, October 17-23. It's a tournament that you can't afford to miss. $75 room rates, great hospitality, restaurants close by: everything you need and want at a regional. Don't miss it!

My big thing is Juniors. Why? Because Juniors are the future of our game. If we can't interest young people in our great game we are headed in the wrong direction. The ACBL has hired a firm, Simpson Communications, to help the ACBL develop this market. A new website is being launched on August 16, www.bridgeiscool.com. Hopefully this will attract youngsters from elementary school age to college age to eventually try their hand at bridge. Please go to the site to take a look, and encourage your children and grandchildren to do the same.

Bridge is alive and well thanks to all of you who play and volunteer your time to make things fun for everyone. Don't underestimate us. We're doing a great job. See you at the tables.

Joan Gerard, District Director

3rd Annual Brunch and Charity Swiss Teams

The Westchester Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes accepts our check from the 2004 Charity Swiss, presented by Joan Gerard.

The Charity Committee is presented with a certificate from the Westchester Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes thanking the Unit for its contribution in 2004.

Heading for three in a row, our Unit's Swiss Team Charity Game and Silent Auction returns to the scene on Sunday, October 2, 2005. This great fundraiser will be held at the same place (Bridge Deck) and time (Silent Auction begins 11:30 AM and the Swiss Teams at 12:30 PM). The format of four matches of six boards each was a great success last year and will be repeated again this year. Teams consist of 4 - 6 players, with the $60 entry fee going entirely to our charities after expenses have been deducted.

Last year we raised over $5,000 to give to charity. This year our goal is $5,750. We will be starting to collect donations at the end of August. Checks may be made out to any one of our charities, or to the WCBA to be equally divided between them. You will see a thermometer at both the Bridge Deck and Hartes' Club showing the names of the charities. Please take a moment to write a check to help a worthwhile cause. Watch the thermometer climb up to our goal. Mimi Bieber, Alisan Harte, Kassie Munoz, Heidi Klein or Joan Gerard will be happy to accept your donation.

This year's silent auction will include many of the same fabulous items: seats in the Skybox at Madison Square Garden, jewelry from the famous boutique of Laura Brill, dinner for two at the Kittlehouse and other fine restaurants, many small household appliances and items, play dates with the area's top teachers and pros, a subscription to Bridge World magazine, gift certificates to Marcello Gambacorta's famous beauty salon, a fine selection of wines, bridge lessons, and many other exciting offerings.

All players and visitors will have the opportunity to bid on these items until 3:30 PM. The auction will then close as the last round of bridge begins. Winners of the items that were bid on will be announced after the last round. The charities for this year are: Food-Patch of Westchester, Grace Church Community Center, Westchester Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes, Westchester Department of Parks and Recreation, and Westchester Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Alisan Harte will be helping singles or pairs find teams. Alisan can be reached at HarteLegal@aol.com. There's no excuse to stay home. Please come out again this year or try this great event for the first time. Support our Unit's fantastic fundraiser and enjoy a fun afternoon of bridge. The Bridge Deck is the place to be on October 2. BE THERE!

- The Charity Committee - Mimi Bieber, Joan Gerard, Alisan Harte, Heidi Klein, and Kassie Munoz

Jane Hill Sectional

On October 7-8, newcomers to duplicate bridge will have the opportunity to play in a sectional just for them at the Jane Hill Future Masters Sectional. This tournament is held annually in honor of the late Jane Hill, who was renowned for her ability to teach bridge to beginning players. On both days, the games will be held at the Memorial United Methodist Church, 250 Bryant Avenue, White Plains.

Players with fewer than 100 masterpoints are eligible to participate. Silver points will be awarded.

For the complete schedule and driving directions, please see the full page ad on page 7 of this issue of Bridging the Counties.

NAP Finals Scheduled

Next on the schedule for the NAPs will be the District level finals. The two session District final will be held on September 25 at the Guardian Angel Church in Allendale, NJ. You can see details and directions at: <http://www.bridge-district3.org/naop06.htm>

The Club rounds, which occurred over the summer, allowed areas players to earn a qualification to play at the District final. Only players who have already earned their qualification this year can play in the District final.

The top finishers in each flight at the District finals will be eligible to play in the National Finals, which will be at the 2006 Spring NABC in Dallas, TX in March.

Roy Hill Master / Non-Master Game

On the evening of Sunday, December 4, the 29th annual Roy Hill Master / Non-Master Game will be held at the Bridge Deck.

For this special game, players with fewer than 50 masterpoints are randomly paired with Life Masters. The newly formed partnerships briefly discuss conventions (which are usually determined by what the non-master normally plays), and then compete against each other in a regular matchpoint pairs game. This is a very social event, as well as giving the non-masters a good learning experience.

Pre-registration is required for both the life masters and non-masters. People in both groups who are interested in playing may contact the chairman, by either mailing the form below to Rich Laufer, 65 Caterson Terrace, Hartsdale, New York 10530, or calling him at (914) 949-5853.

One Deal Made the Difference

The Goldman Pairs is the premier event in the Eastern States Regional. This year's event, played on Saturday and Sunday in Manhattan, was the 77th, making it the oldest regional pair championship in the country,

These were the winners:

1. Arch McKellar of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., and Greg McKellar of Kingston, Ontario, 558.20 matchpoints.
2. Walter Lee of Cambridge, Mass., and Alex Perlin of Weehawkin, N.J., 555.04
3. Richard Schwartz of East Elmhurst, N.Y., and Chris Willenken of Manhattan, 552.95

The winners are probably the only uncle and nephew pair ever to take this title. They scored well on the diagrammed deal when declarer didn't guess the play correctly.

[See right column.]

North's raise to two spades with only doubleton support was debatable, especially since his partner had not opened with a weak-two bid. If North had bid one no-trump, that contract could have been beaten. (the defenders taking one spade, five hearts, and either one diamond or one club) but would probably have made it in practice. Note also that two hearts by East is defeated if the defense plays three rounds of diamonds, South ruffing the last and exiting with either his remaining trump or a low spade.

Against two spades doubled, West, Uncle Arch, led the club nine. Declarer won East's jack with his ace, and played three rounds of diamonds, ruffing the last low in his hand. Now came a club to dummy's king. The only way to make the contract at this point, assuming everyone is playing double-dummy, is to call for the spade king to pin East's queen. But understandably South continued with a winning diamond, discarding a heart when East ruffed with his spade honor. West threw the heart six. This was an upside-down count signal, high-low showing an odd number of cards. East cashed the heart ace, learning that South was now out of hearts. East then took the club queen, West discarding his remaining heart to leave this end position:

East continued with the heart king. Declarer ruffed with his spade jack, but West overruffed with the ace and returned a low trump. Although South put in dummy's nine, he could take only one more trick, with dummy's spade king.

Defeating the contract by one trick gave East-West 12 matchpoints out of 17 on the board and made the difference between winning and finishing third.
