NORTH AMERICAN PAIRS QUALIFYING SCHEDULE

The North American Pairs qualifying games will be held during June, July and August. There are three masterpoint flights: A, Open; B, 0-2000; C, 0-500 (Non-Life Master). You may qualify to play in the Unit Final at any NAP Qualifying game in any Unit in District 3. Those that qualify in the Unit Final may go on to play in the District 3 Final. The top three pairs in each Flight will qualify to play in the North American Final to be played at the Spring 2004 Nationals in Reno, Nevada. The top two pairs in each Flight will have their expenses to attend the Nationals subsidized by the ACBL. Following is a list of club qualifying games in Unit 188.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are very excited to announce our new web site, www.Bridge-WCBA.com, which will offer the very latest information regarding our Unit on-line. The site includes listings of upcoming events, event results, on-line copies of Bridging the Counties, contact information, Unit Ace of Clubs and Mini-McKenney leaders, plus links to other sites you may want to visit. Our web administrator Ed Zuckerberg has the ability to implement an idea within minutes of its creation. And many thanks to Rich Laufer for getting us on the right track and making it all happen so quickly and painlessly.

Our Spring Sectional at the County Center was a success with 345 tables in play. There were no problems under Betty Fleischer's excellent chairmanship. Increased costs resulted in a loss of about $500. I don't think this is a problem we should dwell on; just twelve more tables and we would have broken even. The good news is that the Unit is very solvent and can absorb the loss. As I mentioned in my last message, profits that are earned at some Unit events are used to help subsidize other Unit events.

Unit players did quite well in the recently held GNT qualifying event. Congratulations to Flight A winners: Eileen Paley, Richard Laufer, Mimi Bieber, and Faye Marino; and to the Flight C winners: Dana Rossi, Adam Lally, David Huber and Michael Otte. They will represent District 3 at the Nationals in Long Beach, CA this summer, and some of their expenses will be subsidized by the District and Unit. We wish them good luck.

Many ACBL events are popular with long traditions. However, we seem to lose interest in some, and welcome new offerings. The GNTs is a good example, with a very poor turnout. The Unit experienced a similar decline with the Calcutta, and two years ago we eliminated it. Our Charity Committee, led by Joan Gerard, is now planning a new program, to begin with a special Swiss Teams event in October.

Fortunately, regionals do not fall out of favor. District 3 will be hosting the Saratoga regional June 9-15, 2003 and Secaucus August 4-10, 2003. I hope many of you will be able to attend.
-Janet Lippmann

Editor's Corner

First I would like to talk about bridge and the internet. If you read the Bulletin, there was controversy a while ago about the impact of the internet on duplicate bridge. That controversy quickly subsided with agreement that the internet was good for duplicate bridge, and was replaced by a controversy about on-line masterpoints. After the ACBL implemented a plan to award reduced masterpoints for on-line play, that controversy disappeared, too.

I don't play for masterpoints on-line. Instead, I just play socially there. This is just my choice, and I'm not recommending that you limit yourself like this.

But for those of you who haven't played on-line, I want to urge you to try it. It is a fun way to meet new people, and lets you play bridge without worrying about a foursome or blocking off several hours for a regular duplicate game.

My "regular" partner on-line is from Australia, and is an ACBL member. For this issue of Bridging the Counties, he has submitted a strange director's call from a hand from high-level Australian play. I hope you have a good laugh (see page 3).

Due to the fact we both work, the only time we can both play is evening my time which is morning the following day his time. Generally this means Friday night for me and Saturday morning for him. We've only played together a few times, but it's been great. It's fun getting an Australian perspective on what "Standard American" is. To solve our bidding dilemmas, I may start playing Precision with him, but first I need to learn Precision better. I've also offered to try the Australian version of Canape (not full Acol), but that's less likely to ever happen. As we continue playing, whatever system we wind up using doesn't matter - it will be a fun learning experience for both of us.

But without the internet, I would never have met this person and would never have had the opportunity to play bridge with him. It is because of this experience that I want to encourage you to try bridge on-line.

Secondly, I want to mention an unusual occurrence at a recent club game. Out of twelve pairs at the game, five were using a weak no-trump, nearly 50% of the field. Normally, Rick and I will be one of a few pairs using weak no-trumps. But here was a game where the minority was substantial, which was very unusual. I don't recall seeing a pairs game with this many weak no-trump bidders since the Phoenix NABC in 1994. I wonder if more people will start using weak no-trumps?

Jason Fuhrman

This N' That From Your District Director

If you didn't play some bridge at the Philadelphia NABC, almost in your own backyard, you missed a great tournament. Terrific playing conditions all under one roof, marvelous hospitality, and restaurants in all price ranges within walking distance. Just exactly the blend that makes for an NABC that is grand. Congratulations to Nancy Widman, playing with Sylvia Moss, Linda Gordon and her favorite female partner, Leslie Paryzer, for their 3rd place finish in the Women's National Swiss.

Although our membership continues to decline, we are hopeful that new marketing plans currently being worked on will enable us to reverse this trend. Management has taken on the goal of recruiting 1,500 new members per month. Many new ideas are emerging for teaching bridge, and for reaching out to youth as well as seniors. New incentive programs have also begun for the units.

Our GNTs held in White Plains were a big disappointment. There were very, very few table in all four flights. Congratulations are in order for both the Flight A and Flight C winners, both of which were all WCBA teams: Mimi Bieber, Eileen Paley, Faye Marino and Rich Laufer in Flight A; and Dana Rossi, Adam Lally, David Huber, and Michael Otte in Flight C. We'll be rooting for them in Long Beach. Hopefully we will have two Westchester teams that are National winners. Next year the National finals will be in New York City, so our turnout should be fantastic.

When you read this article, the Saratoga Regional will be only days away. Last year we had over 1,000 tables in play over the six days. We are aiming for 1,100 this year. Help us to make it so! If you haven't made your plans, hurry up and do so. And don't forget the Secaucus Regional in August. Senior and newpicate games Tuesday through Saturday will be at 10 AM and 3 PM, and Sunday we have a really early start at 10:30 AM. As an added attraction, BridgePro Tour is running their Money Individual Game on Wednesday at 1 PM and 7 PM; Thursday at 9 AM, and Friday at 9 AM, if necessary. It's an opportunity for those that are interested to play in an Individual and win cash prizes.

Find out all about our Secaucus schedule here in Bridging the Counties, in the Bridge Bulletin, or on our web site: www.bridge-district3.org

Have a great summer. Keep bridge in your plans. I hope to see you at the tables..

Joan Gerard, District Director

Unit 188 Web Site

Unit 188 now has our own web site. You can find it at www.Bridge-WCBA.com. Ed Zuckerberg is the administrator of the web site. Questions and comments about it can be made directly to him.

The website is kept up to date with the latest information about Unit events. For example, results from the Sectional at the County Center were available on the web site the very same day. You can also check the web site for any last minute changes to events.

If you can't find your copy of Bridging the Counties, you can just check the web site. The current issue and all the back issues through 2002 are available for your perusal.

An Interesting Hand

This humorous auction actually occurred during a high level tournament in Australia:

South West North East
Pass (1) Pass (2) Double (3) Redouble (4)
Passed out! (5)

- (1) Normal, what you would expect.
- (2) East-West were playing a forcing pass system, so this showed an opening hand.
- (3) Later explained as intended for takeout!
- (4) East did NOT call the director about an insufficient call. Instead, he chose to redouble to show a good hand, thereby accepting the double!
- (5) Nor did anyone else choose to call the director yet. South summoned the director after the final pass..

And what ruling as the director would you have made?

- Submitted by D. S. Yarwood

Spring Sectional Results

Carlos Munoz was the masterpoint leader in the WCBA's Spring Sectional at the County Center in White Plains. He earned 30.63 masterpoints, with two Friday victories and a tie for second place in the Sunday Swiss Teams. Other masterpoint leaders included: (2) Gerald Sosler, 21.07; (3) Kay Schulle, 18.82; (4/5) Nancy and Doug Widman, 17.86.

There were a total of 345 tables during the three days of the Sectional.

Silent Auction - Brunch - Swiss Teams

The WCBA is planning to start the day with a brunch. And while you are munching on goodies, we hope that you will want to bid on the items that will be on display. The bids will be "silent." Simply select the item of your choice and write down your bid. The next person comes along and writes down a higher bid. At the end of the afternoon, the highest bidder goes home with the item.

We hope to have all of the items donated by people who are in business and want to make a donation to charity. The charities we have selected are The Bridge Fund of New York, Inc., which operates the Bridge Fund of Westchester, and the Westchester County Parks and Recreation. The Bridge Fund's mission is to prevent homelessness by providing assistance to those who do not qualify for government aid. The money for Westchester County Parks and Recreation is earmarked to send underprivileged children from Westchester County to a school performance of the Nutcracker Suite.

It has been several years since our Unit has run a charity game. We are hoping for a big turnout and a day that will be fun for everyone.

This will be a five match Swiss Teams event. The brunch and silent auction will start at 11:30 AM, with the game to follow starting at 12:30 PM. You are guaranteed to be home by 5:30 PM, unless, of course, you stay to have your picture taken as the winner and you need help to load your car with all of the wonderful items that you bid on and won!

Please contact any member of the charity committee if you have something you would like to donate to our Silent Auction.

HERB CHAICE

Westchester bridge lost one of its stalwarts with the passing of Herb Chaice. With his wife, Judith, he was a constant participant at the Friday night games for over twenty-five years. A ranked chess player, as well as a life master at bridge, Herb and Judith regularly attended Regionals and Nationals.

He was an attorney at a prestigious New York law firm where he counseled many illustrious clients. Herb also lived a life of adventure with a stint as a bullfighter, and he was also an avid skier.

Bridge was his passion right to the last days of his life and he will be missed, but we look forward to Judith carrying on his competitive spirit.

- Peter Kalat

HERE LIES MATILDA

The clubroom for bridge was as cold as a fridge
But, "Please turn the thermostat lower.
I am going to faint," was Matilda's complaint,
Expected by people who know her.

Each week we would wait for Matilda to state,
"My persona is sensitive, thermally."
She gasped and she wheezed and occasionally sneezed,
But somehow was warm epidermally.

It was useless to plead, "It's as cold as we need."
Matilda still wanted it colder.
While we, lily-livered, turned blue and we shivered,
Matilda just turned a cold shoulder

EPITAPH

Here lies Matilda, a thermostat killed her
When it fell to the level she'd chosen.
And now that she's dead, pray let it be said,
She is not only chilled, she is frozen.

- Arthur Ash

As of when this issue of Bridging the Counties went to press, the WCBA Nominating Committee had not completed the nomination process for officers and directors of the WCBA Board for 2004. The proposed slate of candidates will be published in the September 2003 issue.

Why Do People Play Weak No-Trumps?

Most people in the United States open a strong 1NT - usually 15-17, and sometimes 16-18. The theory behind this is that you are contracting for a more difficult contract and taking up extra space in the bidding, therefore you need a stronger hand than a traditional opening.

Many players who have not played weak no-trumps often ask a lot of questions. How do you show strong no-trump hands? Isn't it dangerous because you can get doubled and go down a lot? The theory behind strong no-trumps is sound, so why change it? This article will answer these questions.

To show strong no-trump hands you use a two-step bidding sequence. Using Precision where 1NT is usually 13-15, you would open 1♣ (16+ points), and re-bid 1NT to show 16-18. Or in more traditional weak no-trump methods, you open your better minor and re-bid 1NT.

It's not really dangerous. Although you can play the exact same systems as with a strong no-trump, many people add additional run-out sequences just in case there is a penalty double.

There are good reasons to use weak no-trumps. Some systems demand it because they use other strong openings. It has pre-emptive value. And it's a narrowly defined bid which comes up more often than strong no-trumps.

Local Player to Compete in College Bridge Championships

Eric Mayefsky, a Westchester college student, will compete in the finals of the 2003 College Bridge Team Championships in Long Beach, California, in July.

Eric, who just finished his freshmen year at Stanford University, will play with three Stanford teammates in the college event, which is conducted annually by the American Contract Bridge League. The competition will take place during the ACBL Summer NABC in Long Beach.

Stanford is one of six teams that qualified in the preliminary rounds. Also in the finals are the University of Chicago, the University of Michigan, Ohio Wesleyan University, the University of Victoria and Yale University.

During his senior year at Horace Greeley High School, Eric was a frequent contestant - and occasional winner - in the Monday evening 0-100 masterpoint game at the Bridge Deck.
