

EDUCATION.ORG WELCOMES DR KILEMI MWIRIA AS MANAGING DIRECTOR, AFRICA

Zurich, 30 August, 2022 - Please join us in welcoming our newest team member, Dr. Kilemi Mwiria, who begins with Education.org today as Managing Director, Africa. Based in Nairobi, he will support the growth of our Africa team in identifying, designing, and implementing initiatives developed with country partners to improve the enabling institutional and policy environments for heightening evidence use in education at the government level in Sub-Saharan Africa, and will contribute to Education.Org's work globally.

Kilemi Mwiria has previously served as Kenya's Assistant Minister for education, an elected member of parliament and Senior Education Advisor to Kenya's President Uhuru Kenyatta. Other prior roles have included: university lecturer and researcher (Kenyatta University, Kenya and the University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa); development consultant with governments and local and international donors in sub-Saharan Africa; member of the Bureau of Education Ministers, Association for the Development of Education in Africa (ADEA); board member, UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning; Adjunct Professor/Associate Scholar, Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace, and Environmental Studies (Nairobi); and Chairman Kenya National Qualifications Authority. He holds a doctorate degree in international education from Stanford University, a master's degree in comparative education from the University of Chicago, and a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Nairobi.

Dr. Randa Grob-Zakhary, CEO and Founder: It is our honor and pleasure to welcome the esteemed Dr. Kilemi Mwiria to Education.org. We enthusiastically advance our journey as he joins our growing group of dynamic and dedicated colleagues and partners."

Media contact

Rina Hernandez-Sae Ma

Communications Officer

rina@education.org

+41 (0) 76 509 96 97