

Ady & Co.

Color the caterpillar, flower and trace the words in English & Spanish

H h
is for Host

Host

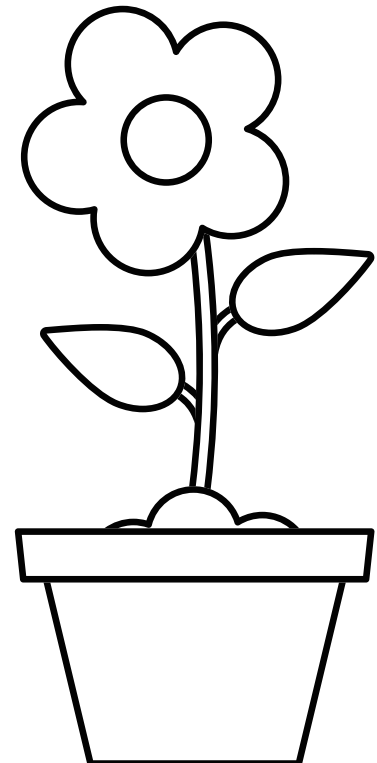

Planta huésped

N n
is for Nectar

Nectar

Néctar

Host Plant: A plant the butterfly will lay eggs on. This plant is rich in nutrients and feeds the hungry caterpillars.

Nectar Plant: Rich in nutrients, nectar plants consist mainly of a liquid solution of fructose, glucose, and sucrose; they also contain traces of salts, acids, proteins, and essential oils.