Pets of the Month: SPRING & HER BABIES

Spring was part of a group of 9 outdoor cats in Eldorado Springs (which is how she got her name) who were at risk of being shot.

Unbeknownst to us, Spring was pregnant and gave birth just a few days after arriving in our safe care. She has two beautiful healthy tuxedo babies (we think 1 male and 1 female), who have yet to be named.

If you would like to give Spring and/or her kittens the loving forever home that they so deserve, please visit our website to fill out an adoption application and schedule an appointment to meet them!

♥♥♥ LOVE STORIES ♥♥♥

“Foster Fail” Completes a Family of Three

When we were first asked to foster a dog I thought, “This is perfect. No commitment, I get my doggy fix, and I’ll make my daughter happy -- all for a good cause.” And again, no commitment. Little did I know what the future had in store for us!

When Roscoe first came to our house, I’ll admit I was worried about all of the dog hair (wow), but my daughter fell in love right away. Roscoe knew a few commands, and loved to snuggle. We had a few arguments over what bed was his, but that didn’t last very long.

During our first weekend together, we had a little bit of a doggy struggle, but that ended in an amazing bond between my daughter, myself, and our Roscoe. We knew then that he was meant to be with us forever. The details aren’t necessary, but I now completely understand that adrenaline saying about a mother lifting a car off her baby. You never know what you’re capable of doing in order to save someone you care about.

Now I don’t care so much about all of the dog hair (still wow though). We are now a household of three, my daughter, myself, and our Rosco, and I wouldn’t trade that for anything. -- Sara
