

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEApril 4, 2017*GALORE READY TO BEGIN A DIAMOND DRILL PROGRAM

Vancouver, BC: Galore Resources Inc. (TSX-V: GRI) (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it is nearing completion of a geological mapping and sampling program on the San Jose and Los Gemelos claims on the Company’s 20,000 hectare (49,420 acre) Dos Santos project in Mexico. The Company is moving efficiently and effectively in developing its new exploration model through field mapping, sampling and integrated structural analysis (ISA).

Galore’s team has developed a completely new geological model that is driving its exploration program in a much different direction than that of the past exploration model. A number of drill holes have been laid out for testing these new exploration targets. Management has also initiated a search for a drilling partner in an estimated 3,500-meter (11,480 ft.) drill program beginning on the San Jose claim.

The company is pleased with its new team and the in-depth approach to the drill program. Galore believes it is very close to translating its vision into a reality.
